Role Of Tradition In Islam:

Tradition and Future of Islamic Education Wilna A.J. Meijer, 2009 The relation between Islam and the West is the topic of an ongoing debate The debate often leaves us with a choice between two mutually exclusive worlds the modern West with its enlightenment and science and accompanying secular education or else Islam and Islamic education characterised by orthodoxy and tradition In the hope of promoting dialogue instead of polarisation the author a philosopher of education trained in the West searches for the ideas and ideals of education schooling and learning within Islam Wherever knowledge and learning have blossomed education schooling and teaching must have flourished too Which educational culture was part of the highly developed intellectual culture of classical Islam Current day modernist Muslim intellectuals take inspiration from this rich intellectual tradition of Islam The perspective on the future of Islamic education in the modern context in which the book results utilizes their ideas Hermeneutics the theory of interpretation is applied to the rereading and reinterpretation of the source texts of Islam Hermeneutics also offers an inspiring perspective on an education that strikes the balance between tradition and enlightenment

The Traditions of Islam Alfred Guillaume, 1924 Jerusalem and Its Role in Islamic Solidarity Y. Reiter, 2008-05-26 The book deals with the role of Jerusalem as a central religious political symbol and with the processes by which symbols of faith and sanctity are being employed in a political struggle It examines the current Islamic ethos towards Jerusalem and the affinity between this religious ethos and the political aspirations of the Palestinians and other Arab and Islamic groups It also compares current Jewish and Muslim narratives and processes of denial and de legitimizing the affiliation of the other to the holy city and its sacred shrines and addresses the question whether religious outlook forms a major barrier for achieving peace in the Israeli Arab arena

Islam, Fundamentalism, and the Betrayal of Tradition, Revised and Expanded Joseph E.B. Lumbard, 2009-08-16 This fully revised edition of the critically acclaimed book contains a series of essays that explain the misconceptions that lie at the heart of Western attitudes towards Islam Including a new essay on the role of women in Islam an updated chapter containing insights into the concept of Jihad and three fully revised chapters that bring the discussion up to date with the current global situation this book is a must read for anyone interested in Islam and its relation to the West

Defending Traditional Islam in Indonesia Syamsul Rijal, 2023-12-01 Defending Traditional Islam in Indonesia examines the rise of young preachers of Arab descent habaib and their sermon groups in the region and shows how Islam and politics coexist flourish interlace and strive in Indonesia in complex pragmatic and mutually beneficial relationships The book argues that the emergence of Arab preachers in the late 1990s when traditional forms of Islamic authority came under growing challenge from a diverse array of Muslim groups and ideologies is closely tied to contestation between traditionalists and their puritanical rivals the Salafi Wahhabi Not only have the habaib featured prominently in defending traditionalism they have also used this contestation as an opportunity to build their authority and religious capital through marketisation and their ties to the Middle East The author explores the ways in which habaib promote themselves to the mostly young urban Muslim community and also analyses the use of new media and marketing strategies by habaib to attract young followers The use of merchandise utilising popular culture and group identity markers is especially salient in the preachers outreach to urban audiences In addition public staging and entertainment during preaching activities are means by which the habaib cast their Islamic preaching dakwah as the Prophet s mission and encourage their followers participation A novel socio cultural and religious study and a contribution to the growing discussion on new media market and religion this book will be of interest to anthropologists social scientists and area studies scholars interested in Indonesia Southeast Asia and Islamic studies

Traditional Islamic Ethics: The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Contemporary Human Rights Irfaan

Jaffer, 2021-09-07 Traditional Islamic Ethics: The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Contemporary Human Rights concentrates on the subject of Islam and modernity and Islam and human rights a topic that has become popular and relevant with the rise of globalization and the interest in Islamic extremism and human rights This book distinguishes itself by operating within the framework of the traditional school of thought or Islamic Traditionalism In doing so it draws on Islam's 1400 year old spiritual and intellectual tradition and its understanding of ethics and virtue along with truth justice freedom and equality This book argues that Islam's pre modern approach is indispensable in creating an organic and integral human rights model for Muslims The first section argues that the current understanding and implementation of international human rights needs to be more flexible and inclusive if it truly aims to be universal in scope this is because The Universal Declaration and its offshoots are still underpinned by secular liberal principles and therefore are at odds with other cultural traditions To this end this section critically explores popular human rights histories and contemporary ethical theories that attempt to justify human rights The second section of this book provides a general overview on the subject of Islam and Human Rights After explaining some of the main problems this section examines various solutions offered by Muslim academics and scholars focusing on four different types of Muslim responses to modernity and human rights liberal progressive traditional and fundamentalist It concludes that there are spaces of convergence between modern liberal ethics and traditional Islamic virtue ethics while maintaining that there are also fundamental differences and that these differences should be welcomed by human rights theorists and advocates The book's intended audience is primarily post graduate students and professional academics in the fields of Human Rights Ethical Philosophy and Islamic Studies modern Islamic thought Sufism Islamic theology Islamic Philosophy and Traditionalism It will also appeal to anyone interested in the subject of Islam and modernity in general and Islam and human rights in particular

Islamic Education in Britain Alison Scott-Baumann, Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, 2015-08-27 The Western world often fears many aspects of Islam without the knowledge to move forward On the other hand there are sustained and complex debates within Islam about how to live in the modern world with faith Alison Scott Baumann and Sariya Contractor Cheruvallil here propose solutions to both dilemmas with a particular emphasis on the role of women Challenging existing beliefs about Islam in Britain this book offers a paradigm shift based on research conducted over 15 years The educational needs within several groups of British Muslims were explored resulting in the need to offer critical analysis of the provision for the study of classical Islamic Theology in Britain Islamic Education in Britain responds to the dissatisfaction among many young Muslim men and women with the theological secular split and their desire for courses that provide combinations of these two strands of their lived experience as Muslim British citizens Grounded in empirical research the authors reach beyond the meta narratives of secularization and orientalism to demonstrate the importance of the teaching and learning of classical Islamic studies for the promotion of reasoned dialogue interfaith and intercultural understanding in pluralist British society      Women, Religion, and Social Change Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Ellison Banks Findly, 1985-01-01 De bijdragen in dit boek onderzoeken welke rol vrouwen van diverse religieuze achtergronden hebben gespeeld in revoluties en sociale veranderingen Er wordt nagegaan hoe religies de deelname van vrouwen aan het sociale veranderingsproces stimuleren of belemmeren Alle grote wereldgodsdiensten en hun verschillende lokale invullingen komen aan bod      Women from Traditional Islamic Educational Institutions in Indonesia Eka Srimulyani, 2012 Dit is de eerste Engelstalige publicatie over vrouwen in traditionele islamitische onderwijsinstellingen in Indonesië de zogenaamde pesantren Deze vrouwen spelen een belangrijke rol de genderproblematiek in de Indonesische moslimgemeenschap Deze informatieve en inzichtelijke studie dient twee groeiende onderzoeksgebieden in de studies over Indonesië de studie naar de islam en de studie naar moslimvrouwen Tevens voegt het een nieuw perspectief toe aan de bestaande Engelstalige literatuur over moslims buiten de huidige dominante context van het Midden Oosten of Sub Indische continent      Between Islam and the American Dream Yuting Wang, 2013-11-26 Based on a three year ethnographic study of a steadily growing suburban Muslim immigrant congregation in Midwest America this book examines the micro processes through which a group of Muslim immigrants from diverse backgrounds negotiate multiple identities while seeking to become part of American society in the years following 9 11 The author looks into frictions conflicts and schisms within the community to debunk myths and provide a close up look at the experiences of ordinary immigrant Muslims in the United States Instead of treating Muslim immigrants as fundamentally different from others this book views Muslims as multidimensional individuals whose identities are defined by a number of basic social attributes including gender race social class and religiosity Each person portrayed in this ethnography is a complex individual whose hierarchy of identities is shaped by particular events and the larger social environment By focusing on a single congregation this study controls variables related to the particularity of place and presents a thick description of interactions within small groups This book argues that the frictions conflicts and schisms are necessary as much as inevitable in cultivating a composite culture within the American Muslim community marked by diversity leading it onto the path of Americanization
