Rolf's Walkabout Carol Serventy, Alwen Harris, 1971      Walkabout, 1962-07      Personality Presenters Frances Bonner, 2016-05-06 Television presenters are key to the sociability of the medium speaking directly to viewers as intermediaries between audiences and those who are interviewed perform or compete on screen As targets of both great affection and derision from viewers and the subjects of radio internet magazine and newspaper coverage many have careers that have lasted almost as long as post war television itself Nevertheless as a profession television presenting has received little scholarly attention Personality Presenters explores the role of the television presenter analysing the distinct skills possessed by different categories of host and the expectations and difficulties that exist with regard to the promotion of the various films books consumer and cultural products with which they are associated The close involvement of presenters with the content that they present is examined while the impact of the presenters own celebrity on the tasks that they perform is scrutinised With a focus on non fiction entertainment shows such as game shows lifestyle and reality shows chat daytime and talk shows this book explores issues of consumer culture advertising and celebrity as well as the connection of presenters with ethical issues Offering detailed case studies of internationally recognised presenters as well comparisons between national presenters from the UK and Australia Personality Presenters provides a rich discussion of television presenters as significant conduits in the movement of ideas As such it will appeal to sociologists as well as those working in the fields of popular culture cultural and media studies and cultural theory      Island Home Tim Winton, 2017-03-20 The writer explores his beloved Australia in a memoir that is a delight to read and a call to arms It beseeches us to revere the land that sustains us Guardian From boyhood Tim Winton's relationship with the world around him rock pools sea caves scrub and swamp has been as vital as any other connection Camping in hidden inlets walking in high rocky desert diving in reefs bobbing in the sea between surfing sets Winton has felt the place seep into him and learned to see landscape as a living process In Island Home Winton brings this landscape and its influence on the island nation's identity and art vividly to life through personal accounts and environmental history Wise rhapsodic exalted in language as unexpected and wild as the landscape it describes Island Home is a brilliant moving portrait of Australia from one of its finest writers the prize winning author of Breath Eyrie and The Shepherd's Hut among other acclaimed titles      Robbery under arms, by Rolf Boldrewood Rolf Boldrewood, 1888      Stories of the Outback,      Rolf Boldrewood De Serville, Paul, 1996-09-10 Rolf Boldrewood T A Browne was one of the best known novelists of nineteenth century Australia Robbery Under Arms brought him a national and an international audience It became a household name and has remained in print since 1889 Boldrewood was the first novelist to create specifically Australian characters He was one of the chief spokesmen for old pre goldrush Australia for pastoral Australia and above all for conservative Australia This biography attempts to uncover Boldrewood's ideas and to reveal the life of the man who was Boldrewood's alter ego Thomas Alexander Browne 1826 1915 Browne had three careers as a pioneer squatter civil servant

and writer and epitomised the pioneer colonist who experiences sudden reversals of fortune Paul de Serville's research shows that he was not merely the sunny hopeful and genial man portrayed in earlier studies but rather an impulsive extravagant at times thoughtless optimist whose Micawber like temperament enabled him to escape being crushed by his ill judged decisions Browne used his own life and experiences as raw material for his novels but his career was in many ways far grimmer than most of his fiction     Who's who in Australia ,2007     The Bulletin ,1997     The A to Z of Australian Radio and Television Albert Moran,Chris Keating,2009-08-04 Australians have become increasingly visible outside of the country as speakers and actors in radio and television their media moguls have frequently bought up foreign companies and people around the world have been able to enjoy such Australian productions as The Flying Doctors Neighbours and Kath and Kim The origins early development and later adaptations of radio and television show how Australia has gone from being a minor and rather parochial player to being a significant part of the international scene The A to Z of Australian Radio and Television provides essential facts and information concerning the Australian radio and television industry This is accomplished through the use of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on directors producers writers actors television and radio series and television and radio stations
