The Pollen Room Zoë Jenny, 2000 Narratives of Motherhood and Mothering in Fiction and Life Writing Helena Wahlström

Henriksson, Anna Williams, Margaretha Fahlgren, 2023-03-16 This open access volume offers original essays on how motherhood and mothering are represented in contemporary fiction and life writing across several national contexts

Providing a broad range of perspectives in terms of geopolitical places thematic concerns and theoretical and interdisciplinary approaches it demonstrates the significance of literary narratives for understanding and critiquing motherhood and mothering as social phenomena and subjective experiences The chapters contextualize motherhood and mothering in terms of their particular national and cultural location and analyze narratives about mothers who are firmly placed in one national context as well as those who are in between positions due to migrant experiences The contributions foreground and link together the themes central to the volume embodied experience and maternal embodiment notions of what is normal or natural or not about motherhood maternal health and illness mother daughter relations maternity and memory and the impossibilities of giving voice to the mother They raise questions about how motherhood and mothering are marked by absence and or presence as well as by profound ambivalences

Mad Mädchen Margaret McCarthy, 2017-07-01 The last two decades have been transformational often discordant ones for German feminism as a new cohort of activists has come of age and challenged many of the movement's strategic and philosophical orthodoxies Mad Mädchen offers an incisive analysis of these trans generational debates identifying the mother daughter themes and other tropes that have defined their representation in German literature film and media Author Margaret McCarthy investigates female subjectivity as it processes political discourse to define itself through both differences and affinities among women Ultimately such a model suggests new ways of re imagining feminist solidarity across generational ethnic and racial lines
