Racial Thinking in the United States G. Reginald Daniel, 2004 Racial Thinking in the United States Paul R. Spickard, G. Reginald Daniel, 2004 Racial Thinking in the United States is a comprehensive reassessment of the ideas that Americans have had about race This useful book draws on the skills and perspectives of nine scholars from the fields of history sociology theology American studies and ethnic studies In thirteen carefully crafted essays they tell the history of the American system of racial domination and of twentieth century challenges to that racial hierarchy from monoracial movements to the multiracial movement This collection begins with an introduction to how Americans have thought about race ethnicity and colonialism The first section of the book describes the founding of racial thinking in the United States along the racial binary of Black and White and compares that system to the quite different system that developed in Jamaica Section two describes anomalies in the racial binary such as the experiences of people of mixed race and of states such as Texas California and Hawaii where large groups of non Black and White racial groups co exist Part three analyzes five monoracial challenges to racial hierarchy the Civil Rights and Black Power movements the Chicana o movement the Asian Ame
