Red Women On The Silver Screen:

Red Women on the Silver Screen Ramboro Books,1997-06 Red Women on the Silver Screen Lynne Attwood,1993

The Soviet Union was the first country in the world to declare women equal to men At the same time cinema was emerging as the newest and most accessible form of popular entertainment and as a powerful tool in propagandizing the Party line This book looks at the interaction between these two phenomena at the extent to which women s new status and roles were reflected and promoted on Soviet screens throughout the country s history Part I written by Lynne Attwood provides an essential framework for readers unfamiliar with Soviet studies It offers a lucid and lively account of the milestones in Soviet history the importance of film within this history and the changing images and experiences of Soviet women within both cinema and society In Parts II and III women from the former Soviet Union film critics directors camera operators and script writers relate their own experiences in the film industry and their responses to the images of women portrayed on screen This crisply written book illustrated with evocative photographs from Soviet films will provide readers with a real insight into the relationship between women and film in the Soviet Union Women in Russia and Ukraine Rosalind J.

Marsh,1996-03-14 In this book leading western specialists and Russian and Ukrainian feminists examine how gender has shaped Russian and Ukrainian history from the twelfth century to the present In particular they analyse the current backlash against women s emancipation Using new archival materials and the insights of feminist theory the contributors explore the relevance of gender equality and difference in Russian history They find that women have not merely submitted to the patriarchal system but instead have found creative ways of resisting it Chapters focusing on contemporary Russia discuss abortion pornography sexual minorities young women s lifestyles the impact of economic reform on women and the development of the women s movement This book will be of interest to students and specialists in Russian Ukrainian and women s studies as well as to historians political scientists sociologists and economists Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin,Irina Livezeanu,Christine D. Worobec,June Pachuta Farris,2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes Women in Soviet Film Marina Rojavin,Tim Harte,2017-09-22 This book illuminates and explores the representation of women in Soviet cinema from the late 1950s through the 1960s and into the 1970s a period when Soviet culture shifted away to varying degrees from the well established conventions of socialist realism Covering films about working class women rural and urban women and women from the intelligentsia it probes various cinematic genres and approaches to film aesthetics while it also highlights how Soviet cinema depicted the ambiguity of emerging gender roles pressing social issues and evolving relationships between men and women It thereby casts a penetrating light on society and culture in this crucial period of the Soviet Union's development

New Soviet Man John Haynes, 2024-07-30 Cinema has long been recognised as the privileged bridge between Soviet ideologies and their mass public Recent feminist oriented work has drawn out the symbolic role of women in Soviet culture but not surprisingly men too were expected to play their part In this first full length study of masculinity in Stalinist Soviet cinema John Haynes examines the New Soviet Man not only as an ideal of masculinity presented to Soviet cinemagoers but also precisely as a man in his specific and hotly debated social cultural and political context A detailed analysis of Stalinist discourse sets the stage for an examination of the imagined relationship between the patriarch Stalin and his model sons in the key genre cycles of the era from the capital to the collective farms and ultimately to the very borders of the Soviet state Informed by contemporary and present day debates over the social and cultural significance of cinema and masculinity New Soviet Man draws on a range of theoretical and comparative material to produce engaging and accessible readings accounting for both the appeal of and the inherent potential for subversion within films produced by the Stalinist culture industry New Soviet Man will be widely read by students and specialists in the fields of film studies Russian and Soviet studies gender and modern European history

Russian War Films Denise Jeanne Youngblood, 2007 A panoramic survey of nearly a century of Russian films on wars and wartime from World War I to more recent conflicts in Afghanistan and Chechnya with heavy emphasis on films pertaining to World War II

The Girl from God's Country Kay Armatage, 2003-01-01 Armatage reintroduces film studies scholars to Nell Shipman a pioneer in both Canadian and American film and one of proportionately numerous women from Hollywood's silent era who wrote directed produced and acted in motion pictures

She Animates Lora Mjolsness, Michele Leigh, 2021-02-02 She Animates examines the work of twelve female animation directors in the Soviet Union and Russia who have long been overlooked by film scholars and historians Our approach examines these directors within history culture and industrial practice in animation In addition to making a case for including these women and their work in the annals of film and animation history this volume also makes an argument for why their work should be considered part of the tradition of women's cinema We offer textual analysis that focuses on the changing attitudes towards both the woman question and feminism by examining the films in light of the emergence and evolution of a Soviet female subjectivity that still informs women's cinema in Russia today

Ruptures and Continuities in Soviet/Russian Cinema Birgit Beumers, Eugenie Zvonkine, 2017-11-22 This book based on extensive original research examines how far the collapse of the Soviet Union represented a threshold that initiated change or whether there are continuities which gradually reshaped cinema in the new Russia The book considers a wide range of films and film makers and explores their attitudes to genre character and aesthetic style The individual chapters demonstrate that whereas genres shifted and characters developed stylistic choices remained largely unaffected
