De Arteaga, 2015-08-17 Agnes Sanford was arguably the most original and spiritually fruitful theologians of the twentieth century Among her achievements were the discovery and development of the inner healing ministry the development of a theology of the light of God missing in Western theology and the first ever theology of nature prayers as in stilling storms She and her husband developed a school to teach ministers and lay leaders healing and deliverance prayer and the gifts of the Spirit a decade before the charismatic renewal made such things acceptable in mainline churches In spite of these achievements she is largely ignored and unrecognized today This work examines her career and shows why her theology though deeply biblical was unacceptable to orthodox critics Sanford was part of a group who worked from the 1900s through the 1960s to make healing and deliverance prayer as normal in church They had to confront the erroneous established theology of cessationism which affirmed that the healing ministry of the church was past The Sound Handbook Tim Crook, 2013-06-17 Tim Crook has written an important and much needed book and its arrival on our shelves has come at a highly appropriate time Professor Se n Street Bournemouth University The Sound Handbook maps theoretical and practical connections between the creation and study of sound across the multi media spectrum of film radio music sound art websites animation and computer games entertainment and stage theatre Using an interdisciplinary approach Tim Crook explores the technologies philosophies and cultural issues involved in making and experiencing sound investigating soundscape debates and providing both intellectual and creative production information The book covers the history theory and practice of sound and includes practical production projects and a glossary of key terms The Sound Handbook is supported by a companion website signposted throughout the book with further practical and theoretical resources dedicated to bridging the creation and study of sound across professional platforms and academic disciplines The Blood of Jesus Christ Nikolas Larum, 2005-06 Christianity is a bloody faith In an age that views blood as
