Carl A. Grant

Reflecting Diversity Multicultural Guidelines For Educational Publishing Professionals:

Reflecting Diversity Karen Baicker, Macmillan/McGraw-Hill School Division, 1993 Proceedings of the National Association for Multicultural Education Carl A. Grant, 2012-12-06 The National Association for Multicultural Education NAME held its 7th Annual Conference in 1997 with a theme of Daring to Educate for Equity and Excellence A Multicultural and Bilingual Mandate for the 21st Century The conference generated scholarship in the form of keynote speeches and conference papers and stimulating discussions among the membership The conference's southwest location of Albuquerque New Mexico provided an excellent back drop to discuss the interconnections between multicultural education and bilingual education as well as provide an opportunity for proponents of both of these important ideas to engage in useful and important discussions The essays comprised in this book capture much of the written record of the conference They convey ideas beliefs and research findings that were presented at the formal sessions at the conference Just as with NAME's previous proceedings it is expected that these proceedings will become not only a written record of the conference but a live curriculum to help pre K through college educators to prepare themselves and those they teach for the 21st century The Death and Resurrection of a Coherent Literature Curriculum Sandra Stotsky, 2012-06-16 This book is addressed to teachers who know that the secondary literature curriculum in our public schools is in shambles Unless experienced and well read English teachers can develop coherent and increasingly demanding literature curricula in their schools average high school students will remain at about the fifth or sixth grade reading level where they now are to judge from several independent sources This book seeks to challenge education policy makers test developers and educators who discourage the assignment of appropriately difficult works to high school students and make construction of a coherent literature curriculum impossible It first traces the history of the literature curriculum in our middle schools and high schools and shows how it has been diminished and distorted in the past half century It then offers examples of coherent literature curricula and spells out the cognitive principles upon which coherence is based Finally it suggests what English teachers in our public schools could do to develop a literature curriculum that gives all their students an adequate basis for participation in an English speaking civic culture Communication, Race, and Family Thomas J. Socha, Rhunette C. Diggs, 1999-08 This volume examines how family communication affects our understanding of race and race relations For scholars studying diversity issues intercultural communication family communication and related areas The Language Police Diane Ravitch, 2007-12-18 If you're an actress or a coed just trying to do a man size job a yes man who turns a deaf ear to some sob sister an heiress aboard her yacht or a bookworm enjoying a boy's night out Diane Ravitch's internationally acclaimed The Language Police has bad news for you Erase those words from your vocabulary Textbook publishers and state education agencies have sought to root out racist sexist and elitist language in classroom and library materials But according to Diane Ravitch a leading historian of education what began with the best of intentions has veered toward bizarre extremes At a time when we celebrate and encourage diversity young readers are fed bowdlerized texts devoid of the references that give these works their meaning and vitality With forceful arguments and sensible solutions for rescuing American education from the pressure groups that have made classrooms bland and uninspiring The Language Police offers a powerful corrective to a cultural scandal

Beyond Training Jack C. Richards,1998-02-13 Beyond Training examines the nature of second language teacher development and how teachers practices are influenced by their beliefs and principles It seeks to move discussion of language teacher development beyond the level of training which reflects a technical view of specific teaching practices Instead it takes a more holistic approach to teacher development built on the notion of the teacher as critical and reflective thinker The argument pursued throughout is that teacher education needs to engage teachers not merely in the mastery of techniques but in an exploration of the knowledge beliefs and attitudes that underly their teaching practices
