Reflections and New Perspectives on Virgil's Georgics Nicholas Freer, Bobby Xinyue, 2019-02-21 Virgil's Georgics the most neglected of the poet's three major works is brought to life and infused with fresh meanings in this dynamic collection of new readings The Georgics is shown to be a rich field of inherited and varied literary forms actively inviting a wide range of interpretations as well as deep reflection on its place within the tradition of didactic poetry The essays contained in this volume contributed by scholars from Australia Europe and North America offer new approaches and interpretive methods that greatly enhance our understanding of Virgil's poem In the process they unearth an array of literary and philosophical sources which exerted a rich influence on the Georgics but whose impact has hitherto been underestimated in scholarship A second goal of the volume is to examine how the Georgics with its profound meditations on humankind nature and the socio political world of its creation has been re interpreted and appropriated by readers and critics from antiquity to the modern era The volume opens up a number of exciting new research avenues for the study of the reception of the Georgics by highlighting the myriad ways in which the poem has been understood by ancient readers early modern poets explorers of the New World and female translators of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Catalogue of Books Added to the Library of Congress, 1861 Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson, 2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology's wide ranging conversation about

Contemporary Queer Modernism Melanie Micir, 2025-04-16 Contemporary Queer

Modernism offers a fresh interdisciplinary approach to the study of the intersections of queer studies and modernist studies. The theoretical expansiveness and mutual overlapping of these still growing fields is both introduced and complicated in the pages of this volume. Presenting a wide range of critical perspectives, the collection brings together original scholarship from both emerging and established scholars that when read together demonstrates the continued vitality of queer modernist studies. The book is divided into five parts: Temporality, Form, Embodiment, Networks, Affect and Atmosphere. Contemporary Queer Modernism is a foundational collection that will be invaluable to scholars and students studying modernism and queer theory across a range of disciplines including gender and sexuality studies, literary studies, cultural studies, and performance.

Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries, bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines: Modern Languages, English, and Comparative Literature, Creative Writing. It covers a broad range of biographical, autobiographical, and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works, texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist, self-reflexive, and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth, folklore, poetry, or drama as they tell a historical character's story. Between them, the essays shed light on the broad range of auto-biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing, in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal, communal, and national identity.
