Reflections on Poetry and Painting (2 vols.) Jean-Baptiste Du Bos, 2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke s empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language Poetry, Practical Theology and Reflective Practice Mark Pryce, 2019-03-13 This groundbreaking study offers an innovative critical analysis of poetry as a resource for reflective practice in the context of continuing professional development In the contemporary drive in all professions for greater rigour in education training and development little attention is paid to the inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author s professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development

Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry Echoes and Reflections SunHee Kim Gertz,2021-11-01 This study examines tales from The Metamorphoses by the Roman poet Ovid 43 BC 18 AD and from The Lais by the French poet Marie de France fl mid to late twelfth century to explore a paradox how can a vibrant complex and timeless vision be conveyed in convention informed and time bound language Marie plays against Ovid s tales to probe the dilemma thereby echoing Ovid who does the same to the canonical literary monuments of his day Both poets suggest that poetry can avoid the flattening effect of monumental canonizing not only by the creative use of literary echoes but also by shifting perspectives on the conventional which in turn can encourage readers to see reflections of many stories in any given tale Ovid and Marie suggest and encourage in this manner by presenting literary love s topoi and traditional lovers from a variety of metaliterary perspectives thereby eliciting active readerly memory as well as providing the opportunity to see the conventional afresh activity that allows even canonical texts to become living memorials

It focuses on hermeneutics interpretation through the lens of philosophy of metacognition. Vital contributions to the book include several chapters by Dr Maryann P DiEdwardo herself which explore various facets of the central topic including the intersectionality of hermeneutics metacognition and semiotics as well as social movements.
