Endangered Languages in the 21st Century Eda Derhemi, Christopher Moseley, 2023-02-24 Endangered Languages in the 21st Century provides research on endangered languages in the contemporary world the challenges still to be faced the work still to be done and the methods and practices that have come to characterize efforts to revive and maintain disadvantaged indigenous languages around the world With contributions from scholars across the field the book brings fresh data and insights to this imperative but still relatively young field of linguistics While the studies acknowledge the threat of losing languages in an unprecedented way they focus on cases that show resilience and explore paths to sustainable progress The articles are also intended as a celebration of the 25 years work of the Foundation for Endangered Languages and as a parting gift to FEL s founder and quarter century chair Nick Ostler This book will be informative for researchers instructors and specialists in the field of endangered languages The book can also be useful for university graduate or undergraduate students and language activists The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Transforming Encounters and Critical Reflection: African Thought, Critical Theory, and Liberation Theology in Dialogue Justin Sands, Anné Hendrik Verhoef, 2018-12-04 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Transforming Encounters and Critical Reflection African Thought Critical Theory and Liberation Theology in Dialogue that was published in Religions Selected Essays of Fletcher (c) Lucas Carpenter, Essays discuss poetry Asian art modern literature painting music and philosophy

Practice-Based Innovation: Insights, Applications and Policy Implications Helinä Melkas, Vesa Harmaakorpi, 2011-10-06 The book describes and analyses the new environment for innovation it does this with an emphasis on yet uncharted regions within the field of practice based innovation coming up with guidelines for innovation policy measures needed in order to realise this While it focuses on these policies it also takes into account multi actor innovation processes user driven innovation related variety and many other aspects aspects such as just to name a few communicating creative processes and distributing practice based innovation then there is creativity itself encompassing new fields of knowledge and expertise The authors go on to describe value networks showing how to make practice based innovations explaining innovation diffusion and absorptive capacity The book presents new insights as well as the latest research related to the frequently used term innovation Definitions are put forward giving by way of examples a detailed description of concepts we draw upon when using these Innovation as a concept is constantly being subdivided into increasingly finer distinctions which in turn determine the discourse The book takes a close look at these further taking into account the challenges as well as the opportunities inherent in developing practice based innovation procedures and policies of global importance never losing sight of advancing long term effectiveness Sensory Reflections Fiona Griffiths, Kathryn Starkey, 2018-10-22 This volume draws on emerging scholarship at the intersection of two already vibrant fields medieval material culture and medieval sensory experience The rich potential of medieval matter most obviously manuscripts and visual imagery but also liturgical objects coins textiles architecture graves etc to complement and even transcend purely textual sources is by now well established in medieval scholarship across the disciplines So too attention to medieval sensory experiences most prominently emotion has transformed our understanding of medieval religious life and spirituality violence power and authority friendship and constructions of both the self and the other Our purpose in this volume is to draw the two approaches together plumbing medieval material sources for traces of sensory experience above all ephemeral and physical experiences that unlike emotion are rarely fully described or articulated in texts
