Reflections On Biography:

Reflections on Biography Paula R. Backscheider, 2013-09 Reflections on Biography is intended for all readers of biography lifelong or occasional critical or casual and is written by an award winning biographer Paula R Backscheider The author examines biography from many angles and gives a tour of the decisions biographers make and some of the implications of those choices Its aim is to increase the pleasure of reading biographies to add new enjoyable dimensions even as it increases readers insights into the art of writing them The book concludes with observations about the form s future directions and challenges In this second edition Backscheider provides a new Introduction that describes innovative forms of biography and new theoretical directions Biography: An Historiography Melanie Nolan, 2023-04-03 Biography An Historiography examines how Western historians have used biography from the nineteenth century to the present considering the problems and challenges that historians have faced in their biographical practice systematically This volume analyses the strategies and methods that historians have used in response to seven major issues identified over time to do with evidence including but not limited to the problem of causation the problem of fact and fiction the problem of other minds the problem of significance or representativeness the problems of perspective both macro and micro and the problem of subjectivity and relative truth This volume will be essential for both postgraduates and historians studying biography

Storytelling: Global Reflections on Narrative Tracy Ann Hayes, Theresa Edlmann, Laurinda Brown, 2019-05-15 This book is a collection of papers from an international inter disciplinary conference focusing on storytelling and human life The chapters in this volume provide unique accounts of how stories shape the narratives and discourses of people s lives and work and those of their families and broader social networks From making sense of history to documenting biographies and current pedagogical approaches to exploring current and emerging spatial and media trends this book explores the possibilities of narrative approaches as a theoretical scaffold across numerous disciplines and in diverse contexts Central to all the chapters is the idea of stories being a creative and reflexive means to make sense of people s past current realities and future possibilities Contributors are Prue Bramwell Davis Brendon Briggs Laurinda Brown Rachel Chung Elizabeth Cummings Szymon Czerkowski Denise Dantas Joanna Davidson Nina Dvorko Sarah Eagle Theresa Edlmann Gavin Fairbairn Keven Fletcher Sarah Garvey Phyllis Hastings Tracy Ann Hayes Welby Ings Stephanie Jacobs Dean Jobb Caroline M Kiesel Maria Dolores Lozano M d lina Moraru Michael R Ogden Nancy Peled Valerie Perry Melissa Lee Price Rasa Ra i nait Pau uolien Irena Ragai ien Remko Smid Paulette Stevens Cheryl Svensson Mary O Brien Tyrrell Shunichi Ueno Leona Ungerer Sarah White Wai ling Wong and Bridget Anthonia Makwemoisa Yakubu The Biographical Turn Hans Renders, Binne de Haan, Jonne Harmsma, 2016-09-13 The Biographical Turn showcases the latest research through which the field of biography is being explored Fifteen leading scholars in the field present the biographical perspective as a scholarly research methodology investigating the consequences of this bottom up approach and illuminating its value for different disciplines

While biography has been on the rise in academia since the 1980s this volume highlights the theoretical implications of the biographical turn that is changing the humanities Chapters cover subjects such as gender religion race new media and microhistory presenting biography as as a research methodology suited not only for historians but also for explorations in areas including literature studies sociology economics and politics By emphasizing agency the use of primary sources and the critical analysis of context and historiography this book demonstrates how biography can function as a scholarly methodology for a wide range of topics and fields of research International in scope The Biographical Turn emphasizes that the individual can have a lasting impact on the past and that lives that are now forgotten can be as important for the historical narrative as the biographies of kings and presidents It is a valuable resource for all students of biography history and historical theory

The Imperial Magazine, Or, Compendium of Religious, Moral, & Philosophical Knowledge ,1829 Prepared for the Twentieth-Century? The Life of Emily Bonnycastle Mayne (Aimée) 1872-1958 Michael Armstrong Crouch,2015-11-25 Aimee Mayne was born into a life of apparent privilege and opportunity However as a woman born in 1872 and living through the first half of the twentieth century these opportunities were severely limited by law culture and tradition This story is of a woman of the British upper middle class whose life was full of colour of living in India of family relationships of travel of the Blitz She kept diaries and wrote an intimate memoir This book explores her emotional conflicts with a revealing analysis that includes revelations about a woman brought up in the late Victorian period encompassing her sex life and the turmoil of an unhappy marriage It is a study of a life that identifies how an upper middle class upbringing that included an attempted tertiary education at a time when this was unheard of for most women induced her into a marriage and life style that was the antithesis of her early aspirations Her life was to engender a sense of grievance that embittered relations with her family While she took advantage of her travels to undertake a successful lecturing career personal fulfilment was only to be found at the end of her life during the London Blitz in World War Two Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace,2022-08-04 This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman The study situates Chapman s career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism s message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism s method Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism Reflections on Lee Charles P. Roland,2003-10-09 Recollections and Reflections Wharton Jackson Green,2025-05-22 Recollections and Reflections An Auto of Half a Century and More offers readers a unique window into the life and times of Wharton Jackson Green This captivating autobiography chronicles Green s experiences and observations over more than fifty years providing valuable insights into the social political and cultural landscape of his era From personal anecdotes to reflections on significant historical events Green s narrative paints a vivid picture of a life lived during a period of immense change This book is an invaluable resource for anyone interested in history biography or the evolution of society Recollections and Reflections is a compelling read that will resonate with those seeking a deeper understanding of the past This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

Provocation and Negotiation. Gesche Ipsen,Timothy Mathews,Dragana Obradovic,2013 This collection of essays takes on two of the most pressing questions that face the discipline of Comparative Literature today Why compare and Where do we go from here At a difficult economic time when universities all over the world once again have to justify the social as well as academic value of their work it is crucial that we consider the function of comparison itself in reaching across disciplinary and cultural boundaries The essays written for this book are by researchers from all over the world and range in topic from the problem of translating biblical Hebrew to modern atheism from Freud to Marlene van Niekerk from the formation of one person s identity to experiences of globalisation and the relation of history to fiction Together they display the ground breaking ideas which lie at the heart of an act as deceptively simple as comparing one piece of writing to another
