of experience John J. MacDermott, Norman Grabo, 1989 Consciousness Sara Heinämaa, Vili Lähteenmäki, Pauliina Remes, 2007-07-16 SARA HEINÄMAA VILI LÄHTENMÄKI AND PAULIINA REMES This book is about consciousness It illuminates the concept in its complexity and richness capturing its theoretical and philosophical significance as well as its problematic aspects By taking a new look into the history of concepts the collection questions several deep seated assumptions about consciousness assumptions both thematic and methodological It argues that even though our predecessors did not formulate their philosophical queries in terms of consciousness they have much to offer to our current disputes concerning its central features such as reflexivity subjectivity and aboutness as well as related themes from selfhood to attention and embodiment At the same time the collection demonstrates that consciousness is not just an issue in the philosophy of mind but is bound to ontology epistemology and moral theory We can find premodern and early modern concepts and arguments that are interesting and even crucial to our own philosophical concerns but we should not assume that these belong or contribute to any theory of mind isolated from metaphysical and ethical discussions an argument that for us provides insightful descriptions of perception or self awareness might to its writer have meant not just a theoretization of the soul or the mind but also and perhaps more importantly a contribution to ethics or ontology Streams of Experience John Joseph McDermott, 1989 The Philosophy of History John William Miller, 1983-02-17 The Philosophy of History with Reflections and Aphorisms consists of essays and some notes written by John William Miller between 1943 and 1974

Criticizing all attempts to interpret history on premises not themselves historical Miller holds that to view history philosophically is to consider it as a constitutional mode of experience a way of organization no less fundamental than physics or logic Pluralizing Philosophy's Past Amber L. Griffioen, Marius Backmann, 2023 This collection of 15 accessible essays on neglected philosophical figures and traditions aims to provide readers with concrete access points to less familiar philosophical sources and methods Showcasing the latest research by both up and coming and well established scholars each

Methodological Reflections on Women's Contribution and Influence in the History of Philosophy Sigridur Thorgeirsdottir, Ruth Edith Hagengruber, 2020-07-11

This book introduces methodological concepts aimed at including women in the canon of the history of philosophy The history of women philosophers is as long and strong as the history of philosophy and this holds true not only for the European tradition as the research of women philosophers of the past shows The phenomenon of ignoring and excluding women in 19th and 20th century views on the history of philosophy was a result of the patriarchal tradition that ostracized women in general In this book leading feminist philosophers discuss methodologies for including women thinkers in the canon and curricula of philosophy How does the recovery of women thinkers and their philosophies change our view of the past and how does a different view of the past affect us in the present Studying a richer and more pluralistic history of philosophy presents us with worlds we have never entered and have never been able to approach This book will appeal to philosophers and intellectual historians wanting to view the history of philosophy in a new light and who are in favor of an inclusive perspective on that history

Theories and Narratives. Reflections on the Philosophy of History, 2007 Hegelian Reflections on the Idea of Nuclear War Hayo B.E.D. Krombach, 1991-06-18 Applying Hegelian dialectical method Krombach attempts to demonstrate how Hegelian thinking provides a method to traverse the gulf between the history of philosophy and the idea of nuclear war as well as showing its direct implications for conceptualizing environmental issues
