Religion In A Religious Age Proceedings Of A Regional Conference April 1973:

Karaite Judaism and Historical Understanding Fred Astren, 2004 Examines the changing relationship of this Jewish sect to rabbinic Judaism and the influence of Muslim and Christian environments. Notions of history and the past contained in literature of the Karaite Jewish sect offer insight into the relationship of Karaism to mainstream rabbinic Judaism and to Islam and Christianity. Karaite Judaism and Historical Understanding describes how a minority sectarian religious community constructs and uses historical ideology. It investigates the proportioning of historical ideology to law and doctrine and the influence of historical setting on religious writings about the past. In the present volume Fred Astren discusses modes of representing the past especially in Jewish culture and then poses questions about the past in sectarian particularly Judaic sectarian contexts. He contrasts early Karaite scripturalism with the literature of rabbinic Judaism which embodying historical views that carry a moralistic burden draws upon the chain of tradition to suppose a generation to generation transmission of divine knowledge and authority. Karaites in the medieval Islamic world eschewed historical thinking in concert with their rejection of the rabbinic concept of tradition. One important medieval Karaite al Qirqisani however constructed a sophisticated historical argument as part of his philosophical exposition of Karaism demonstrating theological and philosophical strategies common in Islam and Christianity. The center of Karaism shifted to the Byzantine Turkish world during the twelfth through sixteenth centuries when a new historical outlook unoblivious of the past accommodated legal developments influenced by rabbinic thought. Reconstructing Karaite historical expression from both published works and previously unexamined manuscripts Astren shows that Karaites relied on rabbinic literature to extract and compile historical data for their own readings of Jewish history which they recorded in an encyclopedic literature similar to contemporary Byzantine Christian Orthodox writing. Astren documents how as the Karaites moved toward a concept of tradition and echoed rabbinic historical formulations they developed a version of the chain of tradition to link archaic biblical history to their own community. During the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Karaite scholars in Poland and Lithuania collated and harmonized historical materials inherited from their Middle Eastern predecessors. Astren portrays the way that Karaites with some influence from Jewish Renaissance historiography and impelled by features of Protestant Catholic discourse prepared complete literary historical works that maintained their Jewishness while offering a Karaite reading of Jewish history.

Open Secret Elliot R. Wolfson, 2012. Menachem Mendel Schneerson 1902-1994 was the seventh and seemingly last Rebbe of the Habad Lubavitch dynasty. Marked by conflicting tendencies Schneerson was a radical messianic visionary who promoted a conservative political agenda, a reclusive contemplative who built a Hasidic sect into an international movement and a man dedicated to the exposition of mysteries who nevertheless harbored many secrets. Schneerson astutely masked views that might be deemed heterodox by the canons of orthodoxy while engineering a fundamentalist ideology that could subvert traditional gender hierarchy, the halakhic distinction between permissible and forbidden and the social anthropological division between Jew and Gentile While most literature on the Rebbe focuses on whether or not he identified with the role of Messiah Elliot R Wolfson a leading scholar of Jewish mysticism and the phenomenology of religious experience concentrates instead on Schneerson's apocalyptic sensibility and his promotion of a mystical consciousness that undermines all discrimination For Schneerson the ploy of secrecy is crucial to the dissemination of the messianic secret To be enlightened messianically is to be delivered from all conceptual limitations even the very notion of becoming emancipated from limitation The ultimate liberation or true and complete redemption fuses the believer into an infinite essence beyond all duality even the duality of being emancipated and not emancipated an emancipation in other words that emancipates one from the bind of emancipation At its deepest level Schneerson's eschatological orientation discerned that a spiritual master if he be true must dispose of the mask of mastery Situating Habad's thought within the evolution of kabbalistic mysticism the history of Western philosophy and Mahayana Buddhism Wolfson articulates Schneerson's rich theology and profound philosophy concentrating on the nature of apophatic embodiment semiotic materiality hypernomian transvaluation nondifferentiated alterity and atemporal temporality Sephardic Studies in the University Jane S. Gerber,1995

Nevertheless the teaching of Sephardic civilization was incomplete and Eurocentric with the Jews of Islam an ongoing entity for over a thousand years scarcely figuring in any course offerings Islamic Culture Through Jewish Eyes Esperanza Alfonso,2007-11-13 This book examines Jewish views towards Islam and Muslims in Al Andalus during the early Middle Ages The Martyrdom of a Moroccan Jewish Saint Sharon Vance,2011-05-10 The martyrdom of a young Jewish girl from Tangier in 1834 sparked a literary response that continues today This book translates and analyzes printed and manuscript versions of her story in Hebrew Judeo Arabic Judeo Spanish Spanish and French written in the first century after her death

Medieval and Modern Perspectives on Muslim-Jewish Relations Ronald L. Nettler,2014-02-25 First Published in 1995 The life of Jews in medieval Baghdad or 18th century Tunis may now be considered to be important as Jewish life in 13th century Worms or 19th century Poland Islamic theological and exegetical writing on Judaism may now command as much interest as their counterparts in Christian literature while the rich Islamic Jewish cultural interchange over many centuries is clearly of great significance Studies in Muslim Jewish Relations will be a series of general volumes each including a wide range of subjects periodic edited volumes each focusing on a certain theme and a planned related monograph series which will publish authored volumes on more specialized aspects of the field This volume is a collection of twelve essays Jewish Self-Government in Medieval Egypt Mark R. Cohen,2014-07-14 Under three successive Islamic dynasties the Fatimids the Ayyubids and the Mamluks the Egyptian Office of the Head of the Jews also known as the Nagid became the most powerful representative of medieval Jewish autonomy in the Islamic world To determine the origins of this institution Mark Cohen concentrates on the complex web of internal and external circumstances during the latter part of the eleventh century Originally published in 1981 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to

M. Rudavsky, 2009-12-01 A thorough and accessible introduction to Maimonides arguably one of the most important Jewish philosophers of all time This work incorporates material from Maimonides philosophical legal and medical works providing a synoptic picture of Maimonides philosophical range Maimonides was and remains one of the most influential and important Jewish legalists who devoted himself to a reconceptualization of the entirety of Jewish law Offers both an intellectual biography and an exploration of the most important philosophical works in Maimonides corpus Persuasively argues that Maimonides did see himself as engaged in philosophical dialogue Maimonides philosophy is presented in a way that is accessible to readers with little background in either Jewish or medieval philosophy Secondary readings are provided at the end of each chapter as well as a bibliography of recent scholarly articles on some of the more pressing philosophical topics covered in the book ReOrienting Histories of Medicine Ronit Yoeli-Tlalim, 2021-01-28 It is rarely appreciated how much of the history of Eurasian medicine in the premodern period hinges on cross cultural interactions and knowledge transmissions Using manuscripts found in key Eurasian nodes of the medieval world Dunhuang Kucha the Cairo Geniza and Tabriz the book analyses a number of case studies of Eurasian medical encounters giving a voice to places languages people and narratives which were once prominent but have gone silent This is an important book for those interested in the history of medicine and the transmissions of knowledge that have taken place over the course of global history The Golden Calf between Bible and Qur'an Michael Pregill, 2020-05-30 This book explores the story of the Israelites worship of the Golden Calf in its Jewish Christian and Muslim contexts from ancient Israel to the emergence of Islam It focuses in particular on the Qur'an's presentation of the narrative and its background in Jewish and Christian retellings of the episode from Late Antiquity Across the centuries the interpretation of the Calf episode underwent major changes reflecting the varying cultural religious and ideological contexts in which various communities used the story to legitimate their own tradition challenge the claims of others and delineate the boundaries between self and other The book contributes to the ongoing reevaluation of the relationship between Bible and Qur'an arguing for the necessity of understanding the Qur'an and Islamic interpretations of the history and narratives of ancient Israel as part of the broader biblical tradition The Calf narrative in the Qur'an central to the Qur'anic conception of the legacy of Israel and the status of the Jews of its own time reflects a profound engagement with the biblical account in Exodus as well as being informed by exegetical and parascriptural traditions in circulation in the Qur'an's milieu in Late Antiquity The book also addresses the issue of Western approaches to the Qur'an arguing that the historical reliance of scholars and translators on classical Muslim exegesis of scripture has led to misleading conclusions
