important cases two recent deadly terrorists and a primary figure in our current war on terror The central idea throughout the book is that a person's attitude toward terror and terrorism as well as whether he or she becomes a murderous terrorist or even who wages a global war on terror has much to do with that person's own terrifying experiences in infancy and childhood Such terror usually experienced first in the earliest interactions with the mother is symbolically expressed as Falk shows in fairy tales and myths about terrifying witches and female monsters Further terror may be experienced in the relationship with the father and also in various other traumatic ways It is these early terrors when extreme and uncontrollable that most often produce terrorists and wars on terror Falk argues Thus his book focuses on the conscious but also on the irrational and unconscious causes of terrorism
