Religions Of The World Sikhism

Gurinder Singh Mann

Religions Of The World Sikhism:

Sikhism Jennifer Burton, 2017 Sikhism originated in the Indian region known as Punjab during the fifteenth century. Sikhs follow the teachings of ten holy men known as gurus who lived between the years of 1469 and 1708. The gurus taught that all people were equal—a concept that went against the dominant caste system of Hinduism, the major religion of India. Since the death of the last guru, Sikhs have continued to revere their teachings, some of which are recorded in a book of wisdom known as the Guru Granth Sahib. Today there are approximately 23 million Sikhs in the world, making Sikhism the world's fifth largest religion. More than 93 percent of all Sikhs live in or near the Indian subcontinent, while North America is home to the second largest Sikh communities. The MAJOR WORLD RELIGIONS series provides information about six of the most important religious faiths practiced around the world. More than 75 percent of the world's population—over 5.2 billion people—observes the tenets of one of these six religions. Each book in the series describes the important beliefs of a particular religion along with information about its history, practices, and rituals. Each title in this series includes color photos throughout and back matter including an index and further reading lists for books and internet resources, a timeline, and organizations to contact. Key Icons appear throughout the books in this series in an effort to encourage library readers to build knowledge, gain awareness, explore possibilities, and expand their viewpoints through our content-rich non-fiction books. Key Icons in this series are as follows: Words to Understand are shown at the front of each chapter with definitions. These words are set in boldfaced type in that chapter so that readers are able to reference back to the definitions, building their vocabulary and enhancing their reading. The fear of death, jealousy, and prejudice are very natural to such religions that lack the blessings of a prophet. With comparison to a complete revelation upon this globe as the Sikh Gurus and their
