Freedom of Religion or Belief in the European Convention on Human Rights Caroline K. Roberts, 2023-11-23 The right to freedom of thought conscience and religion in Article 9 of the European Convention on Human Rights ECHR has become increasingly significant and contested Through an examination of ECHR Article 9 its drafting history and the related jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR Caroline K Roberts challenges the classic approach to this right in the literature Roberts argues that claims that there is or should be a clear binary and hierarchical distinction between the absolutely protected internal realm and the qualified external realm in this right are not founded textually or jurisprudentially Rather the primary materials suggest that the internal and external aspects are deeply interrelated and this is reflected in the ECtHR's nuanced and holistic approach to ECHR Article 9 protection This comprehensive rigorous and up to date reappraisal of ECHR Article 9 and the related ECtHR jurisprudence will be essential reading for academics and practitioners

The European Court of Human Rights and the Freedom of Religion or Belief Jeroen Temperman,T. Jeremy Gunn,Malcolm D. Evans,2019-01-04 As the tensions involving religion and society increase the European Court of Human Rights and the Freedom of Religion or Belief is the first systematic analysis of the first twenty five years of the European Court s religion jurisprudence The Court is one of the most significant institutions confronting the interactions among states religious groups minorities and dissenters In the 25 years since its first religion case Kokkinakis v Greece the Court has inserted itself squarely into the international human rights debate regarding the freedom of religion or belief. The authors demonstrate the positive contributions and the significant flaws of the Court's jurisprudence involving religion, society and secularism. Human Rights, the UN and the Bahá'ís in Iran Nazila Ghanea-Hercock, 2021-10-25. This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of the contribution of the United Nations to the human rights situation of the Bahá'ís in Iran. It does this by examining the theoretical, legal, institutional and political dimensions of this issue in detail. The situation of the Bahá'í community in Iran between 1979 and 2002 provides a particularly good test case for the international community due to its clarity. By giving attention to a singular case within a discrete time frame, this book is able to effectively examine the impact of UN human rights protection. Attention is given in this study to the clash between religion and human rights, the protection of freedom of religion or belief in international law, the workings of UN human rights charter-based and treaty bodies and their various mechanisms and recommendations for the resolution of the Bahá'í human rights situation in Iran.
