Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1997: Department of Transportation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriations, 1996 Religious Voices in the Politics of International Development Paul J.

Nelson, 2021-04-15 This first study of faith based development NGOs FBOs political roles focuses on how U S FBOs in international development educate and mobilize their constituencies Most pursue cautious reformist agendas but FBOs have sometimes played important roles in social movements Nelson unpacks those political roles by examining the prominence of advocacy in the organizations the issues they address and avoid their transnational relationships and their relationships with religious and secular social movements The agencies that educate and mobilize U S constituencies most actively are associated with small Christian sects or with non Christian minority faiths with historic commitments to activism or service Specialized advocacy NGOs play important roles and emerging movements on immigration and climate may represent fresh political energy The book examines faith based responses to the crises of climate change COVID 19 and racial injustice and argues that these will shape the future of religion as a moral and political force in America and of NGOs in international development Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1997 United States.

Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriations, 1996 The Oxford Handbook of Islamic Law Anver M. Emon, Rume Ahmed, 2018-10-25 This volume provides a comprehensive survey of the contemporary study of Islamic law and a critical analysis of its deficiencies Written by outstanding senior and emerging scholars in their fields it offers an innovative historiographical examination of the field of Islamic law and an ideal introduction to key personalities and concepts While capturing the state of contemporary Islamic legal studies by chronicling how far the field has come the Handbook also explains why certain debates recur and indicates fundamental gaps in our knowledge Each chapter presents bold new avenues for research and will help readers appreciate the contested nature of key concepts and topics in Islamic law This Handbook will be a major reference work for scholars and students of Islam and Islamic law for years to come Social Agencies Affecting Educational Work Frank James

Pyle, 1919 Conversations and Controversies in the Scientific Study of Religion, 2016-02-15 Luther H Martin and Donald Wiebe together have spent the better part of a century exploring possibilities for a scientific study of religion The following essays are a record of their conversations together and of their conversations and controversies with a number of leading scholars in religious studies that address that possibility As with any scientific endeavor knowledge advances when research assumptions and experimental designs are collegially discussed and critically assessed It is hoped that these essays might provide the occasion for scholars in the field to discuss the theoretical and methodological issues they have raised to debate and expand upon them or in the spirit of forthright scientific inquiry to refute the arguments they have made Missionary

Education and Empire in Late Colonial India, 1860-1920 Hayden J A Bellenoit, 2015-09-30 Contributes simultaneously to both British imperial and Indian history This work demonstrates that missionary understandings and interactions with India rather than being party to imperial ideologies often diverged from metropolitan and imperial norms Religion and Ethnicity in Canada Paul Bramadat, David Seljak, 2009-10-10 As the leading book in its field Religion and Ethnicity in Canada has been embraced by scholars teachers students and policy makers as a breakthrough study of Canadian religio ethnic diversity and its impact on multiculturalism A team of established scholars looks at the relationships between religious and ethnic identity in Canada s six largest minority religious communities Hindus Buddhists Sikhs Jews Muslims and practitioners of Chinese religion The chapters also highlight the ethnic diversity extant within these traditions in order to offer a more nuanced appreciation of the variety of lived experiences of members of these communities Together the contributors develop consistent themes throughout the volume among them the changing nature of religious practice and ideas current demographics racism and the role of women Chapters related to the public policy issues of healthcare education and multiculturalism show how new ethnic and religious diversity are challenging and changing Canadian institutions and society Comprehensive and insightful Religion and Ethnicity in Canada makes a unique contribution to the study of world religions in Canada Equity and Trusts in Sanskrit Jurisprudence Christopher T. Fleming, 2025-03-27 This monograph outlines the core principles of equity and trusts in Sanskrit jurisprudence Dharma shastra and traces their application in the practical legal administration of religious endowments throughout Indian history rendering the abstruse law of Hindu religious endowments accessible From Autocracy to Integration Lucien D. Benichou, 2000 This book tells of the events which led in September 1949 to the integration of the Princely State of Hyderabad the largest and the richest of the Princely States into the Indian Union The author questions the nature and popularity of the annexation of Hyderabad and attempts to answer sensitive questions through a detailed study of the crucial decade of 1938-48
