Religious Challenge To The State:

State and Politics in Religious Peacebuilding Tale Steen-Johnsen, 2016-11-16 In this book Tale Steen Johnsen explains how religious peacebuilders are limited by both formal and more subtle political strategies aimed at regulating civil society Political authorities have a vested interest in keeping social and religious movements under control which limits the opportunities religious leaders have to diminish violent conflicts between religious groups This volume offers empirical examples of these connections in Ethiopia Kenya Zanzibar and Tanzania It is a valuable resource for both scholars and development practitioners interested in how politics and religion become conflated when religious actors engage to build peace

Global Rebellion Mark Juergensmeyer, 2008-05-16 A new religious activism has seized the imaginations of political rebels around the world In providing a road map through this complex terrain the author bases his discussion on interviews with militant activists and case studies of rebellious movements

Challenges to the Cohesion of the Arab State Asher Susser, 2008 The relative weakness of the Arab state system and the spread of radical Islam threaten to undermine the cohesion of some key Arab states How are they coping with these challenges To what extent are their efforts succeeding in maintaining cohesion of the Arab States This work seeks to examine these crucial questions

Religion, Modernity, and Politics in Hegel Thomas A. Lewis, 2011-07-28 This study analyzes Hegel's philosophy of religion in relation to ongoing debates about the relation between religion and politics as well as the history of their conceptualization in the modern West Lewis argues that recent non traditional more Kantian interpretations of Hegel's project open up a new understanding of his treatment of religion

Institutional Origins of Islamist Political Mobilization Quinn Mecham, 2017-02-01 Muslim countries experience wide variation in levels of Islamist political mobilization including such political activities as protest voting and violence Institutional Origins of Islamist Political Mobilization provides a theory of the institutional origins of Islamist politics focusing on the development of religious common knowledge religious entrepreneurship and coordinating focal points as critical to the success of Islamist activism Examining Islamist politics in more than 50 countries over four decades the book illustrates that Islamist political activism varies a great deal appearing in specific types of institutional contexts Detailed case studies of Turkey Algeria and Senegal demonstrate how diverse contexts yield different types of Islamist politics across the Muslim world

The Politics of Buddhist Organizations in Taiwan, 1989-2003 André Laliberté, 2013-08-21 Laliberté looks at a relatively unexplored aspect of modern Taiwan the influence of religion on politics This book offers a detailed survey of three of the most important Buddhist organizations in Taiwan the Buddhist Association of the Republic of China BAROC the Buddha Light Mountain or Foguanshan monastic order and the Buddhist Compassion Relief Tzu Chi Association or Ciji It examines their contrasting approaches to three issues state supervision of religion the first presidential election of 1996 and the establishment of the National Health Insurance This study analyzes the factors that explain the diverse paths the three organizations have taken in the politics of Taiwan Based on an in depth examination of Buddhist leaders behaviour The Politics of Buddhist Organizations in Taiwan compels us to question conventional views about the allegedly passive aspect of religious tradition deference to authority in societies influenced by Confucian culture and the adverse legacy of authoritarian regimes Encyclopedia of Education Law Charles J. Russo,2008-06-27 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 A welcome addition to any public or academic library this set would also be of use in a law library where educational law might need to be explored and reviewed at a more basic level than other legal texts Sara Rofofsky Marcus Queensborough Community Coll Bayside NY Smaller educational legal summaries exist and a couple of texts deal with Supreme Court cases about education but this set provides a unique combination of general educational legal issues and case specific information It should be a welcome addition to academic and large public libraries Also available as an ebook Booklist The Encyclopedia of Education Law is a compendium of information drawn from the various dimensions of education law that tells its story from a variety of perspectives The entries cover a number of essential topics including the following Key cases in education law including both case summaries and topical overviews Constitutional issues Key concepts theories and legal principles Key statutes Treaties e g the Universal Declaration on Human Rights Curricular issues Educational equity Governance Rights of students and teachers Technology Biographies Organizations In addition to these broad categories anchor essays by leading experts in education law provide more detailed examination of selected topics The Encyclopedia also includes selections from key legal documents such as the Constitution and federal statutes that serve as the primary sources for research on education law At the same time since education law is a component in a much larger legal system the Encyclopedia includes entries on the historical development of the law that impact on its subject matter Such a broadened perspective places education law in its proper context in the U S legal system Women of the Midan Sherine Hafez,2019-04-03 An exploration of gender the Arab Spring and women s experiences of revolution including firsthand accounts In Women of the Midan Sherine Hafez demonstrates how women were a central part of revolutionary process of the Arab Spring Women not only protested in the streets of Cairo they demanded democracy social justice and renegotiation of a variety of sociocultural structures Women s resistance to state control Islamism neoliberal market changes the military establishment and patriarchal systems forged new paths of dissent and transformation Through firsthand accounts of women who participated in the revolution Hafez illustrates how the gendered body signifies collective action and the revolutionary narrative Using the concept of rememory Hafez shows how the body is inseparably linked to the trauma of the revolutionary struggle While delving into the complex weave of public space government control masculinity and religious and cultural norms Hafez sheds light on women s relationship to the state in the Arab world today and how the state in turn shapes individuals and marks gendered bodies Supreme Court's School Choice Decision and Congress' Authority to Enact Choice Programs United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on the Constitution,2002 Religion and Space Lily Kong,Orlando Woods,2016-02-11 This is the first study to bring space into conversation with religious competition conflict and violence in the contemporary world Lily Kong and Orlando Woods argue that because space is both a medium and an outcome of religious activity it is integral to understanding processes of religious competition conflict and violence The book explores how religious groups make claims to both religious and secular spaces and examines how such claims are managed negotiated and contested by the state and by other secular and religious agencies It also examines how globalisation has given rise to new forms of religious competition and how religious groups strengthen themselves through the development of social resilience as well as contribute to resilient societies Throughout the book case studies from around the world are used to examine how religious competition and conflict intersect with space The case studies include topical issues such as competing claims to the Temple Mount Haram el Sharif in Jerusalem opposition to the Ground Zero mosque in New York City and the regulation of religious conversion in India and Sri Lanka By helping readers develop new perspectives on how religion works in and through space Religion and Space Competition Conflict and Violence in the Contemporary World is an innovative contribution to the study of religion
