Ethnic Minorities, Political Competition, and Democracy Jan Rovny, 2024-09-24 Ethnic minorities make contemporary Europe increasingly diverse The wisdom in research on ethnicity is that it is a trouble maker disrupting programmatic politics prioritizing group identity over ideology polity over policy principle over compromise In this book Jan Rovny approaches ethnic politics as normal politics and investigates the ideological potential of ethnicity He shows that ethnic minorities often search for group preservation by championing liberal rights that would protect them from the tyranny of the majority This translates into broader ideological preferences and political behavior including the formation of liberal political poles which in turn configures political cleavages shapes party systems and informs the absorption of new political issues Ultimately the presence of ethnic minorities can be a force for liberal democracy Simultaneously ethnic liberalism is circumstantial as conditional factors cross pressure ethnic minority search for rights and liberties potentially attenuating ethnic liberalism and inducing exclusionary particularism This book combines the study of ethnic politics with research on electoral behavior and party competition while comparing minorities and majorities in eastern Europe The book analyzes existing and new data using mixed experimental quantitative and qualitative methods The empirical chapters in the book are organized into two parts one focusing on large N comparative analyses while the other presents three in depth case studies on interwar Czechoslovakia contemporary Slovakia and contemporary Estonia Transformations in Governance is a major academic book series from Oxford University Press It is designed to accommodate the impressive growth of research in comparative politics international relations public policy federalism and environmental and urban studies concerned with the dispersion of authority from central states to supranational institutions subnational governments and public private networks It brings together work that advances our understanding of the organization causes and consequences of multilevel and complex governance The series is selective containing annually a small number of books of exceptionally high quality by leading and emerging scholars The series is edited by Liesbet Hooghe and Gary Marks of the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and Walter Mattli of the University of Oxford Ethnic Minorities and Politics in Post-Socialist

Southeastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet, Marko Valenta, 2016-09-22 Southeast European politics cannot be understood without considering ethnic minorities This book is a comprehensive introduction to ethnic political parties Religion and Politics in the United States Kenneth D. Wald, Allison Calhoun-Brown, 2018-01-23 Using an evidenced based social scientific approach to religion Kenneth D Wald and Allison Calhoun Brown challenge the perception that religious influence in American politics is a problem to be solved Instead they contend that religion is a form of social identification that not only shapes our ideas about politics but it also shapes the behavior of political elites and ordinary citizens the interpretation of public laws and the development of government programs Ultimately the authors show how religion plays a fascinating and crucial role in our nation s political process and in our culture at large The eighth edition of Religion and Politics in the United States has been fully updated to include the latest scholarship and coverage of the 2016 presidential election It also features a new discussion of the religious right center and left as well as the impact of religion on the fight for equality based on gender and sexual orientation Additional student resources include all new discussion questions and further readings at the end of each chapter as well as a companion website featuring self quizzes

Religion and Politics in International Relations Timothy Fitzgerald,2011-12-29 Religious Politics in Turkey Ceren Lord,2018-11-08 Since the elections of 2002 Erdogan s AKP has dominated the political scene in Turkey This period has often been understood as a break from a secular pattern of state building But in this book Ceren Lord shows how Islamist mobilisation in Turkey has been facilitated from within the state by institutions established during early nation building Lord thus challenges the traditional account of Islamist AKP s rise that sees it either as a grassroots reaction to the authoritarian secularism of the state or as a function of the state s utilisation of religion Tracing struggles within the state Lord also shows how the state s principal religious authority the Presidency of Religious Affairs Diyanet competed with other state institutions to pursue Islamisation Through privileging Sunni Muslim access to state resources to the exclusion of others the Diyanet has been a key actor ensuring persistence and increasing salience of religious markers in political and economic competition creating an amenable environment for Islamist mobilisation

The Political Representation of Immigrants and Minorities Karen Bird,Thomas Saalfeld,Andreas M. Wüst,2010-10-06 In 2005 almost 700 000 immigrants acquired the citizenship of a member state of the European Union over 600 000 became US citizens nearly 100 000 became Australians and approximately 200 000 Canadians 2005 was not an exceptional year During the past decades many advanced liberal democracies have become more ethnically diverse societies This book breaks new ground in the analysis of the political representation of immigrants and visible minorities both theoretically and empirically It examines the upward trend in migrant and minority representation and demonstrates that there remain crucial differences across liberal democracies in the timing of these developments in channels of access for minority representatives in the policy focus and outcomes of minority representation in the nature of the connections between minority representatives and minority communities and in the nature of their relationships with constituents at large Part I analyses immigrants and visible minorities as voters who must be the starting point of any analysis of political representation Part II deals with the stage of candidate selection within political parties a crucial and under researched stage in the process of political representation Part III deals with immigrants and members of visible minorities once elected to parliament and includes analyses of the Canadian Parliament the German Bundestag MPs in the United Kingdom and Members of the United States Congress The book will of interest to students and scholars of migration and ethnicity studies and political science especially those with an interest in political representation democratic institutions voting behaviour party organisation legislative behaviour and comparative politics

Religion and Politics in America Allen D. Hertzke,Laura R. Olson,Kevin R. den Dulk,Robert Booth Fowler,2018-08-06 Religion and politics are never far from the headlines but their relationship remains complex and often confusing This book offers an engaging accessible and balanced treatment of religion in American politics It explores the historical cultural and legal contexts that motivate religious political engagement and assesses the pragmatic and strategic political realities that religious organizations and people face Incorporating the best and most current scholarship the authors examine the evolving politics of Roman Catholics evangelical and mainline Protestants African American and Latino traditions Jews Muslims and other religious minorities recent immigrants and religious nones and other conventional and not so conventional American religious movements New to the Sixth Edition Covers the 2016 election and assesses the role of religion from Obama to Trump Expands substantially on religion s relationship to gender and sexuality race ethnicity and class and features the role of social media in religious mobilization Adds discussion questions at the end of every chapter to help students gain deeper understanding of the subject Adds a new concluding chapter on the normative issues raised by religious political engagement to stimulate lively discussions

Religion as a Political Resource Miriam Schader,2017-01-02 Miriam Schader shows that migrants can use religion as a resource for political involvement in their new country of residence but under certain circumstances only The author analyses the role religious networks and symbols play for the politicization and participation of Muslim and Christian migrants from sub Saharan Africa in Berlin and Paris Against the widely held belief that Islam is a political religion in itself this study demonstrates that Christian migrants draw on their religion for political action more easily than their Muslim counterparts It also highlights that it is not religion in general which helps migrants get politically active but particular forms of religious organisations and particular theological elements

Faith and Race in American Political Life Robin Dale Jacobson,Nancy D. Wadsworth,2012 Drawing on scholarship from an array of disciplines this volume provides a deep and timely look at the intertwining of race and religion in American politics The contributors apply the methods of intersectionality but where this approach has typically considered race class and gender the essays collected here focus on religion too to offer a theoretically robust conceptualization of how these elements intersect and how they are actively impacting the political process Contributors Antony W Alumkal Iliff School of Theology Carlos Figueroa University of Texas at Brownsville Robert D Francis Lutheran Services in America Susan M Gordon independent scholar Edwin I Hernandez DeVos Family Foundations Robin Dale Jacobson University of Puget Sound Robert P Jones Public Religion Research Institute Jonathan I Leib Old Dominion University Jessica Hamar Mart nez University of Arizona Eric Michael Mazur Virginia Wesleyan College Sangay Mishra University of Southern California Catherine Paden Simmons College Milagros Pe a University of Florida Tobin Miller Shearer University of Montana Nancy D Wadsworth University of Denver Gerald R Webster University of Wyoming
