Reluctant Saviour Clinton Fernandes, 2004 No Marketing Blurb Reluctant Saviour: Australia, Indonesia, and the Independence of East Timor, (by) Clinton Fernandes Clinton Fernandes, 2004 A Not-so-distant Horror Joseph Nevins, 2005 In his view much if not all of the horror that plagued East Timor in 1999 and in the 24 preceding years could have been avoided had countries like Australia Japan the United Kingdom and especially the United States not provided Indonesia with valuable political economic and military assistance as well as diplomatic cover East Timor Intervention John Blaxland, 2015-09-01 Australia's involvement in the liberation of East Timor in 1999 was the most decisive demonstration of Australian influence in the region since World War II and the largest military contribution since the Vietnam War Australian diplomacy and leadership shaped the events that led to the birth of Asia's newest nation East Timor Intervention looks at the crisis through the prism of key participants and observers on the ground and abroad including Indonesia's martial law commander Kiki Syahnakri defending his record the country's first president Xanana Gusmão on the resolution and poise of Timor's resistance fighters Australia's Chief of Defence Force Chris Barrie on cobbling the force together commander of the International Force Peter Cosgrove on the operation and key policy adviser Hugh White on Canberra's policy contortions in the lead up to the intervention This impressive collection includes significant new perspectives on Southeast Asian security affairs and the role Australia can play in regional security and stability East Timor, René Girard and Neocolonial Violence Susan Connelly, 2022-01-13 In a new historical interpretation of the relationship between Australia and East Timor Susan Connelly draws on the mimetic theory of René Girard to show how the East Timorese people were scapegoated by Australian foreign policy during the 20th century Charting key developments in East Timor's history and applying three aspects of Girard's framework the scapegoat texts of persecution and conversion Connelly reveals Australia's mimetic dependence on Indonesia and other nations for security She argues that Australia's complicity in the Indonesian invasion and occupation of East Timor perpetuated the sacrifice of the Timorese people as victims thus calling into question the traditional Australian values of egalitarianism and fairness Connelly also examines the embryonic conversion process apparent in levels of recognition of the innocent victim and of the Australian role in East Timor's suffering as well as the consequent effects on Australian self perception Emphasising Girardian considerations of fear suffering forgiveness and conversion this book offers a fresh perspective on Australian and Timorese relations that in turn sheds light on the origins and operations of human violence Timor-Leste's Long Road to Independence Zelia Pereira, Rui Graça Feijó, 2025-10-01 From a much neglected Portuguese colony to independence Timor Leste travelled a belated long and troubled journey that included a 24 year Indonesian occupation A classic process of European decolonization 1974 1975 was followed by a nationalist struggle against Third World Colonialism 1975 1999 and a final phase under the direct aegis of the United Nations 1999 2002 More than a direct relation between coloniser and colonised this turbulent process involved the participation of many different actors scattered around the world The Timor Issue brought to the scene a martyred people's determination the diplomacy of several nations friends or foes the involvement of the United Nations and the activism of solidarity networks This collection adopts a transnational approach that highlights the complexity of Timor Leste's road to independence
