Becoming China Jeanne-Marie Gescher, 2017-11-09 An account of China's past and present how a small group of people at the edges of the Yellow River evolved to become the state of China today Despite decades of a relatively open door relationship with the rest of the world China is still a mystery to many outside it How does China work what does it want why does it want it and what does its rise to global power mean for the rest of the world As the twenty first century looks set to be the stage for a battle about competing geopolitical ideals these are urgent questions for everyone with an interest in what the future might bring A world of its own China is both a microcosm and an amplification of questions and events in the wider world China's story offers us an opportunity to hold a mirror to ourselves to our own assumptions to our values and to our ideas about the most important question of all what it means to be human in the world of the state Epic in scope this is the story of how China became the state it is today and how its worldview is based on what has gone before Weaving together inspirations ideas wars and dreams Jeanne Marie Gescher reveals the heart of what it means to be Chinese and how the past impacts the present

The Spirit of Individualism Lansheng Zhang, 2023-02-02 This book is about avant garde art in Shanghai in the 1980s which challenges the narrative in the current discourse on the appearance of contemporary art in China Offering fresh perspectives and new insights into the art and the artists of this period the book includes critical events in Shanghai that will attract the serious attention of art professionals and collectors The emergence of the Shanghai art scene in the 1980s mirrors the revitalisation of Shanghai that was tasked to lead China's economic development trajectory onto the world stage Shanghai with its semi colonial political economic and cultural history including the strong legacy of the early twentieth century modernist art movement has played a vital role in China's modernisation and presents itself as a unique case in the evolution of contemporary art in China

The Palgrave Handbook of Urban Ethnography Italo Pardo, Giuliana B. Prato, 2017-11-14 These ethnographically based studies of diverse urban experiences across the world present cutting edge research and stimulate an empirically grounded theoretical reconceptualization The essays identify ethnography as a powerful tool for making sense of life in our rapidly changing complex cities They stress the point that while there is no need to fetishize fieldwork or to view it as an end in itself its unique value cannot be overstated These active engaged researchers have produced essays that avoid abstractions and generalities while engaging with the analytical complexities of ethnographic evidence Together they prove the great value of knowledge produced by long term fieldwork to mainstream academic debates and more broadly to society

Seizing the Square Daniel Palm, 2020-10-12 This book discusses global dynamics behind the synchronous outburst of protests in China and Germany in 1989 and the local acts of dissent on the squares comparatively It breaks with the national timelines protests in 1989 have so far been identified with and offers insights into the spatial manifestation of the global moment of 1989 Concluding on the importance of the SpaceTime on the seized squares in 1989 it also discusses more recent protests forming on city squares Offering a global perspective on a phenomenon that itself became global in the last decades the book provides a view on globalization processes operating from below that puts the occupied space on city squares at the heart of interest Art, Global Maoism and the Chinese Cultural Revolution Jacopo Galimberti, Noemi de Haro García, Victoria H. F. Scott, 2019-11-18 This is the first book to explore the global influence of Maoism on modern and contemporary art Featuring eighteen original essays written by established and emerging scholars from around the world and illustrated with fascinating images not widely known in the west the volume demonstrates the significance of visuality in understanding the protean nature of this powerful worldwide revolutionary movement Contributions address regions as diverse as Singapore Madrid Lima and Maputo moving beyond stereotypes and misconceptions of Mao Zedong Thought's influence on art to deliver a survey of the social and political contexts of this international phenomenon At the same time the book attends to the similarities and differences between each case study It demonstrates that the chameleonic appearances of global Maoism deserve a more prominent place in the art history of both the twentieth and twenty first centuries China's Transition to Modernity Minghui Hu, 2015-07-01 The figure of Dai Zhen 1724-1777 looms large in modern Chinese intellectual history Dai was a mathematical astronomer and influential polymath who along with like minded scholars sought to balance understandings of science technology and history within the framework of classical Chinese writings Exploring ideas in fields as broad ranging as astronomy geography governance phonology and etymology Dai grappled with Western ideas and philosophies including Jesuit conceptions of cosmology which were so important to the Qing dynasty 1644-1911 court's need for calendrical precision Minghui Hu tells the story of China's transition into modernity from the perspective of 18th century Chinese scholars dedicated to examining the present and past with the tools of evidential analysis Using Dai as the centering point Hu shows how the tongru broadly learned scholars of this era navigated Confucian Jesuit and other worldviews during a dynamic period connecting ancient theories to new knowledge in the process Scholars and students of early modern Chinese history and those examining science religious and intellectual history more broadly will find China's Transition to Modernity inspiring and helpful for their research and teaching
