Remaking The Agrarian Dream:

Remaking the Agrarian Dream Brian Quayle Cannon,1992 Making a Modern U.S. West Sarah Deutsch,2022

Making a Modern U S West surveys the history of the U S West from 1898 to 1940 centering what is often relegated to the margins in histories of the region the flows of people capital and ideas across borders Hope in Hard Times Mary Murphy,2003 Arthur Rothstein Russell Lee John Vachon and Marion Post Wolcott became some of the United States best known photographers through their pictures of Depression era America Their assignment as one of their associates described it was to have a long look at the whole vast complicated rural U S landscape with all that was built on it and all those who built and wrecked and worked in it and bore kids and dragged them up and played games and paraded and picnicked and suffered and died and were buried in it In Montana the four photographers traveled to forty of the state s fifty six counties creating a rich record of the many facets of the Depression and recovery rural and urban agricultural and industrial work and play hard times and the promise of a brighter future The photographers captured the dignity of Montanans as they struggled to scratch out livings from dried up fields nurture families in the shadows of Butte head frames and foster communities on the vast expanses of the northern plains Hope in Hard Times features over 140 Farm Security Administration photographs to illustrate the story of the Great Depression in Montana and the experiences of the photographers who documented it Today these striking images from cities like Butte to small towns like Terry present an unforgettable portrait of a little studied period in the history of Montana Selected from the Farm Security Administration Collection at the Library of Congress in Washington D C the photographs in Hope in Hard Times offer viewers an unparalleled look at life in Montana in the years preceding the United States entry into World War II Remaking the Agrarian Dream Brian Q. Cannon,1996 Drawing on oral accounts weekly field reports and local newspapers Cannon history Brigham Young U provides an in depth account of the federal resettlement program that relocated over 1 000 impoverished families from submarginal dryland farms to federally sponsored irrigated farms in New Mexi The Bureau of Reclamation: From developing to managing water, 1945-2000 William D. Rowley,2006 Back to the Land C. J Maloney,2011-02-23 How New Deal economic policies played out in the small town of Arthurdale West Virginia Today the U S government is again moving to embrace New Deal like economic policies While much has been written about the New Deal from a macro perspective little has been written about how New Deal programs played out on the ground In Back to the Land author CJ Maloney tells the true story of Arthurdale West Virginia a town created as a pet project of the Roosevelts Designed to be in the words of Eleanor Roosevelt a human experiment station she was to create a New American citizen who would embrace a collectivist form of life This book tells the story of what happened to the people resettled in Arthurdale and how the policies implemented there shaped America as we know it Arthurdale was the foundation upon which modern America was built Details economic history at the micro level revealing the true effects of New Deal economic policies on everyday life Addresses the pros and cons of federal government economic policies Describes how good intentions and grand ideas can result in disastrous consequences not only in purely materialistic terms but most important in respect for the rule of law Back to the Land is a valuable addition to economic and historical literature

The New Deal and Beyond Elna C. Green,2003 This collection of ten original studies covers a wide range of issues related to the regional distinctiveness of welfare provision in the South and the development of the larger federal welfare state The studies examine New Deal and Great Society programs from the Works Progress Administration and Civilian Conservation Corps to Social Security and Medicare In addition they draw attention to such private sector organizations as the Salvation Army and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Some essays look at the degree of federal responsiveness to or actual engagement with recipients of assistance One such study examines the dynamics between the New Deal bureaucracy poor women who worked in WPA organized sewing rooms in Atlanta and local political activists concerned about the women s working conditions The power of race and racism to shape the delivery of social services in the region as well as the strong connections between social welfare and civil rights is a concern common to many studies One study shows how linking the availability of federal Medicare funds to racial equality helped end segregation in southern hospitals Others focus on topics ranging from the pioneering North Carolina Fund a state program that shaped Great Society initiatives to the public health nurses and home economists of the Farm Security Administration to Georgia governor Eugene Talmadge s maneuverings against the Federal Emergency Relief Administration The New Deal and Beyond is filled with many new insights into initiating and maintaining social programs in the South a region whose welfare history is key to understanding the larger story of the American welfare state The M.E.Sharpe Library of Franklin D.Roosevelt Studies: v. 2 Nancy Beck Young,William D. Pederson,Byron W. Daynes,2019-07-25 This book assesses contrasting interpretations of President Roosevelt s relations with the Nye Committee It explores the complexity confronting Rayburn in weighing the factors that influenced his actions during the New Deal portion of his near half century in Congress

H.R. 123, H.R. 2498 and H.R. 2535 United States,2008 Reclamation, Managing Water in the West, The Bureau of Reclamation: History Essays from the Centennial Symposium, Volume 2, 2008, ,2009
