The Beginning and End of Rape

Sarah Deer,2015-11-01 Winner of the Labriola Center American Indian National Book Award Despite what major media sources say violence against Native women is not an epidemic An epidemic is biological and blameless Violence against Native women is historical and political bounded by oppression and colonial violence This book like all of Sarah Deer s work is aimed at engaging the problem head on and ending it The Beginning and End of Rape collects and expands the powerful writings in which Deer who played a crucial role in the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act in 2013 has advocated for cultural and legal reforms to protect Native women from endemic sexual violence and abuse Deer provides a clear historical overview of rape and sex trafficking in North America paying particular attention to the gendered legacy of colonialism in tribal nations a truth largely overlooked or minimized by Native and non Native observers She faces this legacy directly articulating strategies for Native communities and tribal nations seeking redress In a damning critique of federal law that has accommodated rape by destroying tribal legal systems she describes how tribal self determination efforts of the twenty first century can be leveraged to eradicate violence against women Her work bridges the gap between Indian law and feminist thinking by explaining how intersectional approaches are vital to addressing the rape of Native women Grounded in historical cultural and legal realities both Native and non Native these essays point to the possibility of actual and positive change in a world where Native women are systematically undervalued left unprotected and hurt Deer draws on her extensive experiences in advocacy and activism to present specific practical recommendations and plans of action for making the world safer for all Domestic Abuse and the Jewish Community Diane Gardsbane, Rabbi Cindy Enger, 2012-12-06 Learn ways to address domestic and sexual abuse in your community Breaking the cycle of domestic violence and abuse poses unique problems for the Jewish community owing to the internal divisions of politics religious practice and culture However creating strategies to work together based upon the shared values of Judaism can strip away those differences Domestic Abuse and the Jewish Community Perspectives from the First International Conference brings together an outstanding and diverse selection of notable presentations from the First International Conference on Domestic Abuse in the Jewish Community held in July 2003 in Baltimore Maryland The conference entitled Pursuing Truth Justice and Righteousness A Call to Action brought to the forefront the disturbing many times hidden issue of domestic abuse within the Jewish community Respected scholars clergy social service professionals and survivors provide insightful presentations that lay an essential foundation for the building of a collaborative global Jewish movement to respond to this sensitive issue Domestic Abuse and the Jewish Community Perspectives from the First International Conference marks the start of a quiet revolution aimed at ending domestic abuse in various Jewish communities by revealing the many facets of the problem while offering ways to address them Sexual and domestic abuse issues in the Jewish communities of the US Israel South Africa and the UK are illuminated and described and practical strategies are discussed keeping in mind the common goals within the varied communities Jewish religious law is reviewed along with an analysis of Maimonides response to domestic abuse and a vision is offered to respond to child sexual abuse Domestic Abuse and the Jewish Community Perspectives from the First International Conference is separated into five categories of presentations Illuminating the Issue Healing and Wholeness Promising Practices Creating Change and Breaking the Cycle each section progressing logically to present a unified discussion of the issues The book discusses helping religious women escape domestic abuse the Jewish tradition and the treatment of battered women the widespread claim that Maimonides condoned wife battering the spiritual movement called neohasidism the issues of reconciliation between survivors and former perpetrators the Ayelet Programa project which provides long term mentoring to past victims starting a new life organizing the community to address domestic violence in immigrant populations the response to domestic violence in the South African Jewish community services for victims in Israel child sexual abuse and incest Domestic Abuse and the Jewish Community Perspectives from the First International Conference is informative eye opening reading for social workers clergy direct service providers for survivors of domestic sexual abuse directors staff of Jewish Family Service agencies Jewish Federations Jewish women s organizations and Jewish foundations Convergences Maria del Guadalupe Davidson, Kathryn Sophia Belle, Donna-Dale L.
