Rena's Promise A Story Of Sisters In Auschwitz:

Rena's Promise Rena Kornreich Gelissen, Heather Dune Macadam, 1995 Original publication and copyright date 1995

Rena's Promise Heather Dune MACADAM, 1997      Rena's Promise Rena Kornreich Gelissen, Heather Dune

Macadam, 2015-02-24 An expanded edition of the powerful memoir about two sisters' determination to survive during the Holocaust featuring new and never before revealed information about the first transport of women to Auschwitz. Sent to Auschwitz on the first Jewish transport, Rena Kornreich survived the Nazi death camps for over three years. While there, she was reunited with her sister Danka. Each day became a struggle to fulfill the promise Rena made to her mother when the family was forced to split apart: a promise to take care of her sister. One of the few Holocaust memoirs about the lives of women in the camps, Rena's Promise is a compelling story of the fleeting human connections that fostered determination and made survival a possibility. From the bonds between mothers, daughters, and sisters to the links between prisoners and even prisoners and guards, Rena's Promise reminds us of the humanity and hope that survives inordinate inhumanity. Writing the Holocaust Zoë Vania Waxman, 2008-06-26 Arguing against the prevailing view that Holocaust survivors encouraged by a new and flourishing culture of witnessing have come forward only recently to tell their stories, Writing the Holocaust examines the full history of Holocaust testimony from the first chroniclers confined to Nazi-enforced ghettos to today's survivors writing as part of collective memory. Zoë Waxman shows how the conditions and motivations for bearing witness changed immeasurably. She reveals the multiplicity of Holocaust experiences, the historically contingent nature of victims' responses, and the extent to which their identities—secular or religious, male or female, East or West European—affected not only what they observed but also how they have written about their experiences. In particular, she demonstrates that what survivors remember is substantially determined by the context in which they are remembering. Traumatic Memories of the Second World War and After Peter Leese, Jason Crouthamel, 2016-10-05 This collection investigates the social and cultural history of trauma to offer a comparative analysis of its individual, communal, and political effects in the twentieth century. Particular attention is given to witness testimony, to procedures of personal memory and collective commemoration, and to visual sources as they illuminate the changing historical nature of trauma. The essays draw on diverse methodologies, including oral history, and use varied sources such as literature, film, and the broadcast media. The contributions discuss imaginative communal and political responses as well as the ways in which the later welfare of traumatized individuals is shaped by medical, military, and civilian institutions. Incorporating innovative methodologies and offering a thorough evaluation of current research, the book shows new directions in historical trauma studies. Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century Amy E. Randall, 2021-12-16 Focusing on events in Rwanda, Armenia, and the former Yugoslavia, as well as the Holocaust, Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century investigates how historically and culturally specific ideas led to genocidal sexual violence. Expert contributors also consider how these ideas, in conjunction with issues relating to femininity, masculinity and understandings of gendered identities contributed to perpetrators tools and strategies for ethnic cleansing and genocide The 2nd edition features Five brand new chapters which explore imperialism race gender and genocide the Cambodian genocide memory and intergenerational transmission of Holocaust trauma and genocide gender and memory in the Armenian case An extended and enhanced introduction which makes use of recent scholarship on gender and violence Historiographical and bibliographical updates throughout Key primary document excerpt from the 1948 UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Genocide Updated and revised in its second edition Genocide and Gender in the Twentieth Century is the authoritative study on the complex gender dimensions of ethnic cleansing and genocide in the 20th century

The Train Journey Simone Gigliotti, 2009 Deportations by train were critical in the Nazis genocidal vision of the Final Solution of the Jewish Question Historians have estimated that between 1941 and 1944 up to three million Jews were transported to their deaths in concentration and extermination camps In his writings on the Final Solution Raul Hilberg pondered the role of trains How can railways be regarded as anything more than physical equipment that was used when the time came to transport the Jews from various cities to shooting grounds and gas chambers in Eastern Europe This book explores the question by analyzing the victims experiences at each stage of forced relocation the round ups and departures from the ghettos the captivity in trains and finally the arrival at the camps Utilizing a variety of published memoirs and unpublished testimonies the book argues that victims experienced the train journeys as mobile chambers comparable in importance to the more studied fixed locations of persecution such as ghettos and camps
