Buckley, 1984 Canadian History: Beginnings to Confederation Martin Brook Taylor, Doug O'Wram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover The Sound the Stars Make Rushing Through the Sky Jane Johnston Schoolcraft, 2007 Introducing a dramatic new chapter to American Indian literary history this book brings to the public for the first time the complete writings of the first known American Indian literary writer Jane Johnston Schoolcraft her English name or Bamewawagezhikaquay her Ojibwe name Woman of the Sound the Stars Make Rushing Through the Sky 1800 1842 Beginning as early as 1815 Schoolcraft wrote poems and traditional stories while also translating songs and other Ojibwe texts into English Her stories were published in adapted unattributed versions by her husband Henry Rowe Schoolcraft a founding figure in American anthropology and folklore and they became a key source for Longfellow's sensationally popular The Song of Hiawatha As this volume shows what little has been known about Schoolcraft's writing and life only scratches the surface of her legacy Most of the works have been edited from manuscripts and appear in print here for the first time The Sound the Stars Make Rushing Through the Sky presents a collection of all Schoolcraft's extant writings along with a cultural and biographical history Robert Dale Parker's deeply researched account places her writings in relation to American Indian and American literary history and the history of anthropology offering the story of Schoolcraft her world and her fascinating family as reinterpreted through her newly uncovered writing This book makes available a startling new episode in the history of American culture and literature Between the Floods Mark van de Logt, 2023-03-16 The creation story of the Sahní or Arikara people begins with a terrible flood sent by the Great Chief Above to renew the world Many generations later another devastating flood nearly destroyed the Arikaras when the newly built Garrison Dam swamped the fertile land of the Fort Berthold Reservation in North Dakota Between the Floods tells the story of this powerful Great Plains nation from its mythic origins to the modern era tracing the path of the Arikaras through the oral traditions and oral histories that preserve and illuminate their past The Arikaras like their Hidatsa and Mandan neighbors on the northern plains lived as both farmers and hunter gatherers growing corn and hunting buffalo Pressure on their villages from other nations including the Lakotas forced displacements and relocations and once Euro-Americans entered their domain French fur traders the Spanish and especially Americans after Lewis and Clark the Arikaras strategic location on the Missouri River became both an asset and a liability Between the Floods follows this resilient semi-sedentary people in their migration and settlement as they confront the challenges of white incursions tribal conflicts foreign diseases the slave trade and the introduction of horses and metal tools In the Arikaras oral traditions and histories Mark van de Logt finds a key to their distant past as well as the cultural underpinnings of their resilience and persistence as faith in their great prophet Mother Corn guides them and inspires hope for the future Enhanced with the insights of archaeology linguistics and anthropology and illustrated with Native maps and ledger art as well as historic photographs and drawings Between the Floods brings unprecedented depth detail and authenticity to its picture of the Arikaras in the fullness and living presence of their history Compact, Friends, Foes, and Furs Harry W. Duckworth,2019-12-26 George Nelson 1786 1859 was a clerk for the North West Company whose unusually detailed and personal writings provide a compelling portrait of the people engaged in the golden age of the Canadian fur trade Friends Foes and Furs is a critical edition of Nelson s daily journals supplemented with exciting anecdotes from his Reminiscences which were written after his retirement to Lower Canada An introduction and annotations by Harry Duckworth place Nelson s material securely within the established body of fur trade history This series of journals gives readers a first person account of Nelson s life and career from his arrival at the age of eighteen in Lake Winnipeg where he was stationed as an apprentice clerk from 1804 to 1813 to his second service from 1818 to 1819 and an 1822 canoe journey through the region A keen and respectful observer Nelson recorded in his daily journals not only the minutiae of his work but also details about the lives of voyageurs the Ojibwe and Swampy Cree communities and others involved in the fur trade His insights uncover an extraordinary view of the Lake Winnipeg region in the period just prior to European settlement Making the full extent of George Nelson s journals available for the first time Friends Foes and Furs is an intriguing account of one man s adventures in the fur trade in prairie Canada Brothers in Arms, Partners in Trade Mark

Meuwese,2011-11-18 Recent studies on Dutch encounters with indigenous peoples in the Americas and West Africa have taken a narrow regional approach rather than a comparative Atlantic perspective This book based on Dutch archival records and primary and secondary sources in multiple languages integrates indigenous peoples more fully in the Dutch Atlantic by examining the development of formal relations between the Dutch and non Europeans in Brazil the Gold Coast West Central Africa and New Netherland from the first Dutch overseas voyages in the 1590s until the dissolution of the West India Company in 1674 By taking an Atlantic perspective this study of Dutch indigenous alliances shows that the support and cooperation of indigenous peoples was central to Dutch overseas expansion in the Atlantic

Lines Drawn upon the Water Karl S. Hele, 2008-09-30 The First Nations who have lived in the Great Lakes watershed have been strongly influenced by the imposition of colonial and national boundaries there The essays in Lines Drawn upon the Water examine the impact of the Canadian American border on communities with reference to national efforts to enforce the boundary and the determination of local groups to pursue their interests and define themselves Although both governments regard the border as clearly defined local communities continue to contest the artificial divisions imposed by the international boundary and define spatial and human relationships in the borderlands in their own terms The debate is often cast in terms of Canada's failure to recognize the 1794 Jay Treaty's confirmation of Native rights to transport goods into Canada but ultimately the issue concerns the larger struggle of First Nations to force recognition of their people's rights to move freely across the border in search of economic and social independence
