The man his work An appreciation of the quasi mystical American poet by his long time friend critic Illus      Robinson Jeffers. The Man and His Work ,1940*      Robinson Jeffers. The Man & His Work ... Decorations by Rockwell Kent. [With a Portrait.]. Lawrence Clark Powell, John Robinson JEFFERS, 1934      Robinson Jeffers, the Man & His Work. a Foreword by Robinson Jeffers; Decorations by Rockwell Kent Lawrence Clark Powell, 1934      Robinson Jeffers Lawrence Clark Powell, 1940      A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987

Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long knowns to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance      Robinson Jeffers the Man and His Work ,1934      Robinson Jeffers James Karman, 2015-08-05

A deeply informative biography situates the poet in his time and place tracing the effect of both contemporary history and wild nature on his work Edwin Cranston Harvard University The precipitous cliffs rolling headlands and rocky inlets of the California coast come alive in the poetry of John Robinson Jeffers an icon of the environmental movement In this concise and accessible biography Jeffers scholar James Karman reveals deep insights into this passionate and complex figure and establishes Jeffers as a leading American poet of prophetic vision In a move that would define his life s work Jeffers family relocated to California from Pennsylvania in 1903 when he was sixteen At the height of his popularity in the 1920s and 1930s Jeffers became one of the few poets ever featured on the cover of Time magazine and posthumously put on a U S postage stamp Writing by kerosene lamp in a granite tower that he had built himself his vivid and descriptive poetry of the coast evoked the difficulty and beauty of the wild and inspired photographers such as Edward Weston and Ansel Adams He was known for long narrative blank verse that shook up the national literary scene but in the 1940s his interest in the Greek classics led to several adaptations which were staged on Broadway to great success Inspiring later artists from Charles Bukowski to Czeslaw Milosz and even the Beach Boys Robinson Jeffers contribution to American letters is skillfully brought back out of the shadows of history in this compelling biography of a complex man of poetic genius who wrote so powerfully of the astonishing beauty of nature

Power and the Pursuit of Peace: Theory and Practice in the History of Relations Between States F. H. Hinsley, Francis Harry Hinsley, 1967-10

In the last years of the nineteenth century peace proposals were first stimulated by fear of the danger of war rather than in consequence of its outbreak In this study of the nature and history of international relations Mr Hinsley presents his conclusions about the causes of war and the development of men's efforts to avoid it In the first part he examines international theories from the end of the middle ages to the establishment of the League of Nations in their historical setting This enables him to show how far modern peace proposals are merely copies or elaborations of earlier schemes He believes there has been a marked reluctance to test these theories not only against the formidable criticisms of men like Rousseau Kant and Bentham but also against what we have learned about the nature of international relations and the history of the practice of states This leads him to the second part of his study an analysis of the origins of the modern states system and of its evolution between the eighteenth century and the First World War

The Spiritual Aspects of the New Poetry Amos N. Wilder, 2014-05-06 The republication of this book resurrects a landmark volume hailed when published as the first major effort to assess modern poetry from the point of view of its contributions to the spiritual life of our times Resting on the assumption that poetry offers a mirror in which the world can know itself and in which it can read its deepest dilemmas and its deepest omens Wilder explores the work of W B Yeats Ezra Pound Robert Frost D H Lawrence T S Eliot Conrad Aiken Archibald MacLeish Hart Crane W H Auden Kenneth Patchen and Robinson Jeffers among others Wilder investigates the ethical and religious attitudes behind these works the sources behind them and their importance for religious and spiritual life in the modern era The author also discusses the work of leading critics and provides a guide and bibliography to the sources of modernism's roots in America and abroad as well as biographical sketches of the poets and critics discussed
