also describes the varied ways in which England's islands have been formed and how they are constantly changing so making a mockery of human claims to sovereignty Time on Rock Anna Fleming, 2022-01-06 SHORTLISTED FOR THE WAINWRIGHT PRIZE AND THE BOARDMAN TASKER AWARD FOR MOUNTAIN LITERATURE With great lyricism Anna Fleming charts two parallel journeys learning the craft of traditional rock climbing and the developing appreciation of the natural world it brings her Through the story of her progress from terrified beginner to confident lead climber she shows us how placing hand and foot on rock becomes a profound new way into the landscape Anna takes us from the gritstone rocks of the Peak District and Yorkshire to the gabbro pinnacles of the Cuillin the slate of North Wales and the high plateau of the Cairngorms Each landscape and each type of rock brings its own challenges and invites us into the history of a place

Byrde Baddeley,1903 Ron Fawcett - Rock Athlete Ron Fawcett,2011-10-01 Ron Fawcett is a natural born climber In 1969 while still at school in his native Yorkshire he tied into a climbing rope for the first time and was instantly hooked From that moment on it seemed nothing else in his life mattered nearly as much as his next vertical fix Ten years later Fawcett was the most famous rock climber in Britain and among the best in the world part of a new wave whose dedication to training transformed the sport pushing standards further and faster than ever before or since His legacy of new climbs ranks him alongside the very best in the history of the sport He was also the first to style himself a professional rock climber starring in the landmark television documentary Rock Athlete and appearing on the covers of magazines around the world But far from enjoying the fame Fawcett found the pressures of the limelight too much to bear and at the end of the 1980s he faded from view Now for the first time he tells his extraordinary story of how his love of nature and the outdoors developed into a passion for climbing that took him to the top and almost consumed him Winner of the 2010 Boardman Tasker Prize for Mountain Literature Peak District Great Britain. Countryside Commission,Patrick Monkhouse,1971 Unjustifiable Risk? Simon Thompson,2012-03-06 To the impartial observer Britain does not appear to have any mountains Yet the British invented the sport of mountain climbing and for two periods in history British climbers led the world in the pursuit of this beautiful and dangerous obsession Unjustifiable Risk is the story of the social economic and cultural conditions that gave rise to the sport and the achievements and motives of the scientists and poets parsons and anarchists villains and judges ascetics and drunks that have shaped its development over the past two hundred years The history of climbing inevitably reflects the wider changes that have occurred in British society including class gender nationalism and war but the sport has also contributed to changing social attitudes to nature and beauty heroism and death Over the years increasing wealth leisure and mobility have gradually transformed climbing from an activity undertaken by an eccentric and privileged minority into a sub division of the leisure and tourist industry while competition improved technology and information and increasing specialisation have helped to create climbs of unimaginable difficulty at the leading edge of the sport But while much has changed even more has remained the same Today s climbers would be instantly recognisable to their Victorian predecessors with their desire to escape from the crowded complexity of urban society and willingness to take unjustifiable risk in pursuit of beauty adventure and self fulfilment Unjustifiable Risk was shortlisted for the Boardman Tasker prize in 2011 Walking in Derbyshire Elaine Burkinshaw, 2024-05-16 A guidebook to 60 circular walks in Derbyshire exploring the moors and gritstone edges of the Peak District the limestone hills and river valleys of the Derbyshire Dales and the gentler landscapes of the south of the county The day walks easily accessible from Glossop Buxton Bakewell and Matlock range from 4 16km 3 10 miles in length From easy to moderate in difficulty and either half or full day excursions there are routes for walkers of all levels of fitness and experience 1 50 000 OS maps included for each walk Sized to easily fit in a jacket pocket Information given on local history and geology Includes information on terrain refreshments and toilets Local points of interest are featured including Chatsworth House Mam Tor Eyam
