Rockhampton A History Of City And District:

Rockhampton Lorna McDonald,1995 Rockhampton Lorna McDonald,1979 Genocide and Settler Society A. Dirk Moses,2005-03-01 Colonial Genocide has been seen increasingly as a stepping stone to the European genocides of the twentieth century yet it remains an under researched phenomenon This volume reconstructs instances of Australian genocide and for the first time places them in a global context Beginning with the arrival of the British in 1788 and extending to the 1960s the authors identify the moments of radicalization and the escalation of British violence and ethnic engineering aimed at the Indigenous populations while carefully distinguishing between local massacres cultural genocide and genocide itself These essays reflect a growing concern with the nature of settler society in Australia and in particular with the fate of the tens of thousands of children who were forcibly taken away from their Aboriginal families by state agencies Long considered a relatively peaceful settlement Australian society contained many of the pathologies that led to the exterminatory and eugenic policies of twentieth century Europe History of the Australian Environment Movement Drew Hutton,Libby Connors,1999-04-13 This book presents a history of the value of the Australian environment and the struggles to protect it

The Europeans in Australia Alan Atkinson,2014-09-01 This is the third and final volume of the landmark award winning series The Europeans in Australia that gives an account of settlement by Britain It tells of the various ways in which that experience shaped imagination and belief among the settler people from the eighteenth century to the end of World War I Volume Three Nation tells the story of Australian Federation and the war with a focus as ever on ordinary habits of thought and feeling In this period for the first time the settler people began to grasp the vastness of the continent and to think of it as their own There was a massive funding of education and the intellectual reach of men and women was suddenly expanded to an extent that seemed dazzling to many at the time Women began to shape public imagination as they had not done before At the same time the worship of mere ideas had its victims most obviously the Aboriginal people and the war itself proved what vast tragedies it could unleash The culmination of an extraordinary career in the writing and teaching of Australian history The Europeans in Australia grapples with the Australian historical experience as a whole from the point of view of the settlers from Europe Ambitious and unique it is the first such large single author account since Manning Clark s A History of Australia

On Tap Mark McKay,1999 On Tap delves into the annals of pub lore to discover funny sad illuminating and intriguing episodes and incidents in the life of this great Australian institution The author has collected anecdotes serious history folklore tall stories and urban myths about Australians and pubs Writing the Empire Eva-Marie Kröller,2021-04-06 Crossing time and oceans this fascinating history of the McIlwraiths tracks the family s imperial identities across the generations to tell a story of anthropology and empire Seven Versions of an Australian Badland Ross Gibson,2002 To travel this long lonely road is to traverse a stretch of brutal history and to enter a gigantic crime scene The landscape itself holds a million clues to a horror story blazing across two centuries Winding through a haunted place that is forever frontier territory this road is the scene of casual as well as callous murder whether from the 1970s the 1960s or the 1860s Not for nothing is it known as the Horror Stretch In this compulsively readable new book Ross Gibson drives right back along that dangerous stretch and finds himself deep in the Badland Part road movie part memoir part murder mystery Seven Versions of an Australian Badland embarks on an enthralling journey through time into the realms of myth and magic narcissism and genocide Tom Hurstbourne Or a Squatter's Life John Claverling Wood, Gerard Benjamin, 2010 Long lost manuscript becomes a Queensland First after 145 years Faced with losing his centuries old family estate to debt Tom Hurstbourne headed to colonial Australia to make his fortune He had no idea that the Shrewsbury lawyer he left in charge of his affairs would snatch this chance to exact the ultimate revenge on Tom the last of the Hurstbourne dynasty Brisbane Editors Gloria Grant and Gerard Benjamin transcribed the manuscript and wrote its introduction and contextual notes

How They Fought Ray Kerkhove, The history of Australia s Frontier Wars is becoming a hot topic for debate and research It is now part of our national educational syllabus However there are very few books available which explain in detail the modes of warfare First Australians applied during the Frontier Wars How They Fought is written as an introductory guidebook It is broken into chapters covering organisation strategies weaponry and defences The book considers both traditional practices and technological and tactical adaptations To make this complex topic more accessible How They Fought includes numerous tables figures and diagrams that illustrate and summarize the contents

The Flower Hunter Christine Morton-Evans, Michael Morton-Evans, 2009 Ellis Rowan was one of Australia s most accomplished artists and an incredible if somewhat unexpected adventurer During World War I Ellis ventured alone into the tropical jungles of New Guinea in search of all 72 known species of the Bird of Paradise Not only was she the first white woman to do such a thing she was also 70 years old The Flower Hunter is the incredible story of a woman who went to extraordinary lengths to paint her beloved subject matter journeying to some of the most wild and inhospitable areas of Australia and beyond On her death in 1922 there was hardly a household in Australia that didn t know her name Sadly today she is all but forgotten yet her work lives on in the 970 paintings carefully preserved in the National Library of Australia and in this the definitive story of Ellis Rowan s remarkable life

Northern Australia Don Parkes, 2013-09-24 Northern Australia The Arenas of Life and Ecosystems on Half a Continent provides a geographical study of the interplay of environmental challenge and human endeavor in the vast arena of Northern Australia This book is organized into three parts Part A presents the contextual setting for Parts B and C It includes a historical geographer s perspective on the ecological impact of 200 years of European settlement a description of the use of satellite imagery and discussion of some of the interactions among natural subsystems as they impinge on human activities especially in the extensive rangelands Part B discusses some of the human ecosystems which extend over a very large geographical territory In these ecosystems the human population is small in terms of absolute number and relative to the population of other living things These include the tropical marine ecosystems and their growing utilization for mariculture and rangeland ecosystems dominated by cattle and the overlapping semi arid grasslands Part C discusses intensive ecosystems where the human population is dominant in number Pastoral Australia Michael Pearson, Jane Lennon, 2010-04-27 Pastoral Australia tells the story of the expansion of Australia's pastoral industry how it drove European settlement and involved Aboriginal people in the new settler society The rural life that once saw Australia ride on the sheep's back is no longer what defines us yet it is largely our history as a pastoral nation that has endured in heritage places and which is embedded in our self image as Australians The challenges of sustaining a pastoral industry in Australia make a compelling story of their own Developing livestock breeds able to prosper in the Australian environment was an ongoing challenge as was getting wool and meat to market Many stock routes wool stores abattoirs wharf facilities railways roads and river and ocean transport systems that were developed to link the pastoral interior with the urban and market infrastructure still survive Windmills fences homesteads shearing sheds bores stock yards travelling stock routes bush roads and railheads all changed the look of the country These features of our landscape form an important part of our heritage They are symbols of a pastoral Australia and of the foundations of our national identity which will endure long into the future Regional Advantage and Innovation Susan Kinnear, Kate Charters, Peter Vitartas, 2012-12-04 Regional areas are key building blocks of society in many countries This compilation uses Australian case study examples to demonstrate how regional areas are uniquely well placed to contribute to national goals in innovation infrastructure provision water and food security environmental sustainability industry diversification healthy and liveable communities and natural disaster preparedness and response Each of these themes is examined in the context of using innovative approaches from regions to deliver outcomes that are nationally significant Authorship is drawn from a balance of leading practitioners and academics to provide stories that are both engaging and rigorous The case studies are contextualised by an analysis of regional advantage literature discussion on the regional policy implications and lessons and commentary around the key trends and drivers for innovation and regional advantage in Australia The book provides a convincing argument that focusing on regional innovation and development offers significant benefits to a nation as a whole Rockhampton Lorna McDonald, 1981 Detailed history drawing on many archival and manuscript sources includes history of Darambal tribe details of black white conflict and of Aborigines in pastoral and fringe dwelling situations demographic upheaval following the establishment of Woorabinda Reserve and other institutions Ports & Cities of the World W. H. Morton Cameron, 1926 With Love & Fury Judith Wright, 2006 This wide range of letters reminds us of Judith Wright's deep engagement with life her love of the world and of friends and the fine fury that led her to battle so courageously on the world's behalf Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society, 1984 Includes the Society's Annual report and statement of accounts
