ultramodern serialist work was quite a different proposition to Kirchner's own

Reading Between the Lies Lynn Cahoon, 2024-08-06 Bookshop owner Rarity Cole is living her best life after surviving cancer hosting book clubs classes and parties at her store The Next Chapter and giving back to her community in Sedona Arizona But an awkward outing to an art gallery is about to add a dark slant to the picture Rarity is grateful for many things and people in her new life including her friend Shirley who is helping to provide backpacks and supplies for kids going back to school But Shirley needs a big favor With her husband in a memory care home she wants to attend an art opening with a male friend but fears local gossip She asks Rarity her friend Sam and their boyfriends to come along as cover It would be fun if not for the fact that the two couples are barely speaking The evening proceeds without any social disasters But the gallery owner who struck Rarity as more of a spoiled playboy is later found dead with an arrow in his back Any lingering tensions must be set aside so the amateur sleuths can find an archer who may have taken the idea of pointed criticism a bit too literally

Mystery School Sean O', 2014-03-31 Life may be a school of mysteries to many of us or a series of puzzles from which we learn or do not at our own choosing The problem is we don't see that many answers to life's meanings are lying all round us in everyday circumstances For the intrepid learner in us all this book is a selection of prose and poetry personal observations from Sean O's heart Everywhere around us lie the scattered seeds and shoots of the great mystery we call Life In the most ordinary events in common objects and throw away objects and at momentous and trivial moments too all the secret codas await decoding Once we get past the surfaces of things our enlightenment begins The good and bad the great and ugly each reveal how societies work from day to day as does nature from moment to moment Once we look past the lenses each of us is conditioned to wear our sense of purpose and meaning rejuvenates If life is a school then let the learning begin with baby steps if necessary before we try to run

Mystery School is the second book in a series concerned with hidden forces amid ordinary experiences The three sections are intended to focus on the same kinds of mystery hidden in different everyday experiences written in different fonts aka instruments in forms of prose poetry The voices are different yet the same personalities are revealed behind each opening window and door The three fonts connect to either Asian Haiku or European free verse American slang and universal cultural memetics genetics Sean O is attempting to comment on our disappearing flora and fauna while living in the urban recession of the past decade He feels that the loss of our environmental integrity in the 21st century is a sure path to industrialisation of what cannot be risked our free spirits and immaterial souls

The Late Voice Richard Elliott, 2015-10-22 Popular music artists as performers in the public eye offer a privileged site for the witnessing and analysis of ageing and its mediation. The Late Voice undertakes such an analysis by considering issues of time, memory, innocence and experience in modern Anglophone popular song and the use by singers and songwriters of a late voice. Lateness here refers to five primary issues: chronology, the stage in an artist's career, the vocal act, the ability to convincingly portray experience, afterlife/posthumous careers made possible by recorded sound, retrospection, how voices look back or anticipate looking back, and the writing of age, experience, lateness and loss into song texts. There has been recent growth in research on ageing and the experience of later stages of life, focusing on physical health, lifestyle and psychology, with work in the latter field intersecting with the field of memory studies. The Late Voice seeks to connect age, experience and lateness with particular performers and performance traditions via the identification and analysis of a late voice in singers and songwriters of mid-late twentieth century popular music.
