Roden Cutler Vc:

Roden Cutler, V. C. Colleen McCullough, 1999 The Courage and the Will Colleen McCullough, 1999 Roden Cutler's list of honours is long and impressive but it is his sole decoration the Victoria Cross that marks him as a hero. Over 800 000 men and women served in the Australian armed forces during the Second World War but only twenty were awarded the V C. Colleen McCullough vividly shows us the life and times of the young soldier with the dashing good looks the laconic humour and dislike of pretension who came back from the war determined to continue to support his mother but having lost a leg with no idea how to do so. Yet by the age of 29 he was the Australian High Commissioner to New Zealand. His diplomatic career was to include stints to Ceylon Egypt during the Suez crisis of 1956 Pakistan and New York. In 1966 he was appointed Governor of New South Wales. During his 15 years in that office he shared with Captain Arthur Phillip and Lachlan Macquarie he earned his own niche among them as the people's governor. Much loved still remembered as a man equally at home in the company of royalty or trade unionists. His story is embedded in Australian history and part of it. But it is also the story of a man who pulled himself up by his bootstraps to serve his country with courage and dignity in the face of all obstacles. In an age accustomed to public idols with feet of clay Roden Cutler is the exception a man whose integrity is as formidable as his humility is astonishing.

Roden Cutler, V.c Colleen McCullough, 1999 Roden Cutler's list of honours is long and impressive. The life and times of the young soldier who by the age of 29 was the Australian High Commissioner to New Zealand and achieved distinguished diplomatic career.

Victoria Crosses on the Western Front Paul Oldfield, 2022-09-15 In the past while visiting the First World War battlefields the author often wondered where the various Victoria Cross actions took place. He resolved to find out. In 1988 in the midst of his army career research for this book commenced and over the years numerous sources have been consulted. Victoria Crosses on the Western Front Second Battle of Bapaume is designed for the battlefield visitor as much as the armchair reader. A thorough account of each VC action is set within the wider strategic and tactical context. Detailed sketch maps show the area today together with the battle lines and movements of the combatants. It will allow visitors to stand upon the spot or very close to where each VC was won. Photographs of the battle sites richly illustrate the accounts. There is also a comprehensive biography for each recipient covering every aspect of their lives: wars and all parents and siblings education civilian employment military career wife and children death and burial commemoration. A host of other information much of it published for the first time reveals some fascinating characters with numerous links to many famous people and events.

We Who Proudly Served Peter Francis Kenny, 2015-05-27 Although Australia is only a young country in comparison to other nations it can hold its head up high and proudly proclaim that it is one of the giants in this world of toil and trouble in which we live. When the odds are stacked against Australians they don't turn and run instead they stand and fight and overcome the obstacles that face them. The contents of this volume are a tribute to all the men and women of this proud and great country who have come from all walks of life to give of their time and unfortunately some have even given their lives to defend this great land and keep it free There have been politicians doctors nurses police officers average everyday citizens musicians actors artists farmers graziers authors sportsmen and women journalists and a host of others who have taken up the cause for their country and the monarchy serving from the Crimean to the war in Vietnam and beyond Their heroic deeds and their many sacrifices have ensured that today's generation can rest easier proud in the knowledge that these servicemen and women have paved the way for our freedom Now they come together once again as one big family to shed an insight on their achievements so that you can fully understand and appreciate what they have and had experienced I dedicate this work to the memory of all those who have made the supreme sacrifice in order that we may live in peace and prosperity and also to the families of those who did not return The book is not a glorification of war but a glorification of the individual and his or her actions and deeds

The Nationals Paul Davey, 2006 The Nationals tells the story of the NSW National Party from its foundation in 1919 as The Progressive Party to the contemporary era under Andrew Stoner's leadership Paul Davey a former Federal Director and NSW General Secretary writes with an insider's knowledge of the politics policies and personalities that have shaped the modern party His research is comprehensive including unfettered access to party archives Emerging in the wake of World War I The Progressive Party splits after only two years when seven of its 15 members refuse to join a coalition government These dissidents become known as the True Blues and are the founding parliamentary members of the Country and subsequent National Party The party grows into one of the largest political organisations in the country boasting nearly 50 000 financial members in New South Wales in the 1980s It fights off merger proposals and survives despite constant predictions of impending doom as the only party which exclusively represents rural and regional New South Wales The State party is also highly influential in the national context every Federal Leader since John McEwen's retirement in 1971 has come from New South Wales The Nationals is as much about people as policies Davey studied a myriad of documents and interviewed a wide cross section of party figures including all surviving State and Federal leaders The studies and candid comments shed new light on people policies and incidents ranging from Mick Bruxner's and David Drummond's building of inland roads railways and country education facilities to Charles Cutler's fight for State Aid for Independent schools from the repulse of the Joh for Canberra campaign and Pauline Hanson's One Nation to the challenge of Independents from sometimes poisonous relations with the United Australia and Liberal parties to the State's longest serving Coalition Government from relations with the media especially the country press to the role of women and young people in the organisation from the threats posed by changing demographics and electoral redistributions to the push by Doug Anthony to change the name from Country Party to National Country Party and later National Party The Nationals tells the story of a unique organisation a political party that is not factionalised and that despite occasional defections not new in any party remains remarkably stable It has had only nine State and 11 Federal parliamentary leaders in its entire history to date Moreover while at times
