

The book cover features a traditional Japanese-style illustration. The top half shows a large, open-air pavilion with a dark, multi-tiered roof, situated on a raised wooden platform overlooking a body of water. The bottom half is divided into two scenes. The left scene depicts a group of people in traditional attire, including a prominent red and black robe, gathered around a large, round, patterned object, possibly a drum or a large bowl. The right scene shows several figures in dark robes kneeling on a light-colored ground, with one figure in a red and black robe standing and gesturing towards them. The entire illustration is rendered in a style reminiscent of traditional Japanese woodblock prints, with a color palette dominated by earthy tones and reds.
