Diplomatic Theory of International Relations Paul Sharp, 2009-09-03 Diplomacy does not take place simply between states but wherever people live in different groups Paul Sharp argues that the demand for diplomacy and the need for the insights of diplomatic theory are on the rise In contrast to conventional texts which use international relations theories to make sense of what diplomacy and diplomats do this book explores what diplomacy and diplomats can contribute to the big theoretical and practical debates in international relations today Sharp identifies a diplomatic tradition of international thought premised on the way people live in groups the differences between intra and inter group relations and the perspectives which those who handle inter group relations develop about the sorts of international disputes which occur He argues that the lessons of diplomacy are that we should be reluctant to judge ready to appease and alert to the partial grounds on which most universal claims about human beings are made

History and Human Dignity Nayef R.F. Al-Rodhan, 2022-01-27 Sustainable History and the Dignity of Man is a new philosophy of history This volume outlines how sustainable history is propelled by good governance which balances the tension between the attributes of human nature emotionality amorality and egoisms and human dignity needs such as reason security human rights accountability transparency justice opportunity innovation and inclusiveness The author proposes minimum criteria for good governance that are sensitive to local cultures and histories but meet certain common global values to ensure maximum and sustainable moral and political cooperation Using an ocean model of a single collective human civilisation the author argues that we should think in terms of a common human story that is comprised of multiple geo cultural domains and sub cultures with a history of mutual borrowing and synergies The author argues that today all geo cultural domains must succeed if humanity as a whole is to triumph This collective triumph will also depend on reason and a recognition that a great deal of knowledge is indeterminate and may be temporally spatially and perhaps culturally constrained as is outlined in the author s new theory of knowledge Neuro rational Physicalism Dr Nayef R F Al Rodhan is Senior Scholar in Geostrategy and Director of the Programme on the Geopolitical Implications of Globalisation and Transnational Security at the Geneva Centre for Security Policy Geneva Switzerland This book is an exceptionally wide ranging examination of past and present approaches to the securing of a qualitatively adequate social life on the planet The need for intercultural dialogue is pressing and stated as a matter of urgency in the text That argument is well presented and it is helpfully accompanied by a large amount of empirical evidence The book is also a strong and ethically attractive humanist statement about the value of human interaction that incorporates a vision of mutual respect based on a mixture of scientific arguments and normative aspirations Those features are very impressive Professor Michael Freeden Professor of Politics Director of the Centre for Political Ideologies Professorial Fellow Mansfield College University of Oxford United Kingdom

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1881 Sufism in Morocco's Religious Politics John C. Thibdeau,2023-07-25 This book outlines the role of Sufism in Moroccan politics in the twenty first century through a comparative study of contemporary Sufi organizations The author begins his analysis by highlighting the strategies employed by the Moroccan state over the past twenty years aimed at regulating and producing an authorized Moroccan Islam in the kingdom Despite these policies of spiritual security and spiritual diplomacy including the state sponsorship of Sufi organizations the author argues that this has not decreased diversity nor produced a banal interpretation of Islam but rather given rise to diverse articulations and performances of this religiosity Through a comparative analysis of three Sufi organizations based on eighteen months of fieldwork two of which have never before been studied the author brings into relief the spaces of creative enactment of Sufism as an ethical tradition Ultimately it is argued that each Sufi organization reflects a different refraction of i s n a concept emphasising the cultivation of public piety which underpins the Moroccan state s formulation of Islam Focused on both theoretical contributions to Islamic studies and topical treatments of geopolitical issues like spiritual diplomacy the Western Sahara and Morocco Algeria the book spans multiple disciplines including anthropology religious studies sociology and political science
