

Master of Mental Health Nursing

Mental health nurses have a vital role to play in the community. With mental health issues prevalent in society, there is a high demand for nurses to be qualified in this field. They provide essential support in a range of settings to ensure that people across Australia are receiving adequate care.

2.2 million Australians reported a mental health condition which included depression or anxiety in the 2021 Census.*

1 in 5 people experience a mental illness in any given year.*

Suicide rates are 40-50% higher in rural and remote areas when compared to major cities.**
