What We Know Now! Jenny Kelly, Mairead Ronan, 2024-10-24 Across twenty years of friendship Jenny Kelly and Mairead Ronan have experienced single life, marriages, divorce, motherhood, career dilemmas, grief, diets, dodgy hairstyles, stress, ageing, bad times and good times too. Here along with their well earned wisdom about the serious and sometimes funny business of life they share their thoughts on how to navigate grown up friendships, what it means to be in a relationship and how to stop worrying about having it all and start figuring out what it is you actually want. You'll also discover essential truths like why you will never have Pocahontas hair and why that's okay, why there's no greater joy than a deep clean with your favourite spray mop, just Jenny and how staring at trees can make you happier than owning a Mulberry handbag. What We Know Now doesn't claim to solve all your problems but it will provide good company, give you a laugh and help you feel less alone through the unavoidable ups and downs of life. Down to earth practical advice with a great sense of humour. Miriam O Callaghan. A book about real life, the lovely parts and the messy parts. Reading it is like having a cup of tea with a good friend. Derval O'Rourke.

The Reflective Learner NEERAJA RAGHAVAN, 2019-11-18 Is there a way of exploring the work of students beyond just right and wrong? If mistakes are an important part of the learning process, do they need to be explored deeply? Does a teacher stand to gain a better understanding of the workings of her students' minds if an attempt is made to systematically examine the thought process behind every mistake? What is the hidden takeaway, missed take in every mistake for a student as well as a teacher? Four teachers, two language, two maths, examined such questions as part of their action research into students' mistakes and eventually effected a turnaround in the way that their struggling students began to approach subjects like English and mathematics. In this compilation of four engaging journeys, the impact of such an investigation on both the teacher and the taught emerges as teachers begin to gain new insights into their own mental biases and tacit assumptions students too begin to loosen their grip on age old fears and prejudices the phobia s slowly giving way to the desire to look for stimulating challenges There is also a roadmap for teachers who wish to try such an exploration in their own classes in order to empower students to turn into reflective learners
