Nolan, 2019-04-10 The First World War was a transformative experience for women facilitating their entry into new spaces and alternative spheres of activity both on the home front and on the edges of danger zones in Europe and beyond The centenary of the conflict is an appropriate moment to reassess what we choose to remember about women s roles and responsibilities in this period and how women recorded their experiences It is timely to re consider the narratives of women s involvement not only as nurses VADs and mourning mothers but as pacifist campaigners poets war correspondents and contributors to developing genres of war writing This interdisciplinary volume examines women s representations of wartime experience across a wide range of genres including modernist fiction ghost stories utopia poetry life writing and journalism Contributors provide fresh perspectives on women s written responses to the conflict exploring women s war work
