Mysteries Of Harris Burdick Signed:

The Chronicles of Harris Burdick, 2011 A collection of stories based on illustrations in Chris Van Allsburg's The Mysteries of Harris Burdick Philosophy in Children's Literature Peter R. Costello, 2012-01-01 This book seeks to join the ongoing interdisciplinary approach to children's literature by means of sustained readings of individual texts by means of important works in the history of philosophy Its inclusion of authors from both various departments philosophy literature religion and education and various countries is an attempt to show how traditional boundaries between disciplines might become more permeable and how philosophy offers important insights to this interdisciplinary critical conversation

Generative Conversations for Creative Learning Gloria Latham, Robyn Ewing, 2017-12-06 This book builds on conversations between the author educators and other experts in the field including authors illustrators and teachers to explore the benefits of discussions around quality literature within a classroom context that exercises the imagination and generates new ideas and discoveries The book focuses on a range of strategies that can be utilised to reimagine literacy learning in a 21st century context including parent and teacher talk active listening fostering student driven questions building vocabulary and imagery and metacognitive talk These are argued to have a hugely beneficial impact on how children learn to solve problems engage in complex thought processes negotiate meaning as well as learning how to wonder explore create and defend ideas The book also defends the importance of parents teachers and academics as storytellers using their bodies and voices as instruments of engagement and power It will make compelling reading for students teachers and researchers working in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in creative methods for improving literacy

The Morals of Monster Stories Leslie Ormandy, 2017-08-07 The simplicity of children's picture books stories told with illustrations and a few well chosen words or none at all makes them powerful tools for teaching morals and personal integrity Children follow the story and see the characters behaviors on the page and interpret them in the context of their own lives But unlike many picture books most children's lives don't feature monsters This collection of new essays explores the societally sanctioned behaviors imparted to children through the use of monsters and supernatural characters Topics include monsters as instructors the normalization of strangers or the other fostering gender norms and therapeutic monsters among others

Teaching Secondary English Daniel Sheridan, 2013-03-07 This new edition of Teaching Secondary English is thoroughly revised but its purpose has not changed Like the popular first edition it balances content knowledge with methodology theory with practice and problem posing with suggested solutions The tone and format are inviting while addressing student readers on a professional level Rather than attempting to cover everything the text provides a framework and materials for teaching a secondary English methods course while allowing considerable choice for the instructor The focus is on teaching literature writing and language the basics of the profession Attention is given to the issues that arise as one seeks to explore what it means to teach English The problems and tensions of becoming a teacher are discussed frankly in a manner that helps students figure out their own attitudes and solutions Features Focuses on a few central concepts in the teaching of secondary English Provides an anthology of 22 readable and challenging essays on key topics allowing students to hear a variety of voices and opinions Includes an applications section for each reading that extends the discussion and asks students to explore problems and grapple with important issues related to the articles Offers short writing assignments in questions that follow the readings and in brief writing tasks in the applications and a longer writing assignment at the end of each chapter Addresses student readers directly without talking down to them New in the Second Edition This edition is shorter tighter and easier to use The opening and concluding chapters more directly address the concerns of new teachers The anthology is substantially updated of the 22 articles included 14 are new to this edition Each essay is preceded by a brief introduction and followed by questions for further thought There are fewer applications but these are more extensive and more fully integrated within the text A writing assignment is provided at the end of each chapter Interviews with college students before and after student teaching are included in Chapters 1 and 6 The bibliographies at the end of each chapter are fully updated

Common Core Curriculum: English, Grades 6-8 Great Minds,2014-05-06 Common Core s English resources empower educators to meet the expectations of the Common Core State Standards CCSS for English Language Arts ELA and build essential content knowledge for students in grades 6 8 Each grade in The Wheatley Portfolio features a comprehensive coherent sequence of thematic units that engage students in deep study of worthwhile texts and topics Features of this book include Six thematic units for each grade each centered on a curated collection of literary and informational texts Focus standards for each unit that complement the topic and promote student mastery of essential literacy skills Suggested texts and activities to incorporate science art and history into English instruction This revised second edition includes a sample text study that guides students through a close read of an exemplary text updated web resources and refreshed suggested works Educators who create their curriculum based on Common Core s Wheatley Portfolioguarantee that students are exposed to content rich instruction and have ample opportunity to master the reading writing speaking listening and language skills articulated in the CCSS for ELA
