The Romancero of Saint John of the Cross Elizabeth Teresa Howe, 2019-10-01 This book is a study of the nine short poems called romances composed by the Spanish mystic Saint John of the Cross San Juan de la Cruz The focus of the poems is the Trinity and their point of departure is the opening verses of the Gospel of John This is the first in depth English language analysis of these poems and looks at their literary historical scriptural theological and mystical elements It also ties these works to San Juan's better known lyrical poems and his prose commentaries It will appeal to anyone interested in Spanish mystical poetry and the sources that inform that poetry Carmen Martín Gaité Ester Bautista

Botello, 2019-01-09 This book reconstructs the poetics of Carmen Martín Gaité by viewing the concept of journey as a fundamental principle upon which she bases and elaborates her narrative writing of the 1990s Five novels published in this period receive critical attention all of which coincide with the last trips taken by the writer to New York Caperucita en Manhattan 1990 Nubosidad variable 1992 La reina de las nieves 1994 Lo raro es vivir 1996 and Irse de casa 1998 To the extent that the journey is the essence of the narrative under consideration the concept is analysed as an aesthetic practice and an attempt to identify a series of actions which allow us to link the writer's novels with two areas that have previously received only scant critical scrutiny geography and the visual dimension This book presents a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of space in Martín Gaité's narrative as well as in her collages drawings and paintings
