Nuns Blood:

Buddhist Nuns in Taiwan and Sri Lanka Wei-Yi Cheng, 2007-01-24 Taking a comparative approach this fieldwork based study explores the lives and thoughts of Buddhist nuns in present day Taiwan and Sri Lanka The author examines the postcolonial background and its influence on the modern situation as well as surveying the main historical economic and social factors which influence the position of nuns in society Based on original research including interviews with nuns in both countries the book examines their perspectives on controversial issues and in particular those concerning the status of women in Buddhism Concerns discussed include allegedly misogynist teachings relating to women s inferior karma that they cannot become Buddhas and that nuns have to follow additional rules that monks do not Bridging the gap between feminist theory and the reality of women in religion the book makes a distinct contribution to the study of women in Buddhism by focusing on nuns from both of the main wings of Buddhism Theravada and Mahayana as well as furthering feminist studies of Buddhism and religion in general

Taking Medicine Kristin Burnett, 2011-07-01 The buffalo hunter the medicine man and the missionary continue to dominate the history of the North American west even though historians have recognized women s role as both colonizer and colonized since the 1980s Kristin Burnett helps to correct this imbalance by investigating the convergence of Aboriginal and settler therapeutic regimes in the Treaty 7 region from the perspective of women Although the imperial eye focused on medicine men Aboriginal women played important roles as healers and caregivers and the knowledge and healing work of both Aboriginal and settler women brought them into contact But as settlement increased and the colonial regime hardened informal encounters in domestic spaces gave way to more formal one sided interactions in settler run hospitals and nursing stations By revealing Aboriginal and settler women s contributions to the development of health care in southern Alberta Taking Medicine challenges traditional understandings of colonial medicine and nursing in the contact zone through the lens of San Gennaro's miraculously liquefying blood in Naples. This vantage point allows a bracing and thoroughly original rethink of the power of baroque relics and reliquaries. It shows how a focus on miracles produces original interpretations of architecture, sanctity and place which will engage architectural historians everywhere. The matter of the baroque miracle extends into a rigorous engagement with natural history, telluric philosophy, new materialism theory and philosophy. The study will transform our understanding of baroque art and architecture, sanctity and Naples. Bristling with new archival materials and historical insights, this study lifts the baroque from its previous marginalisation to engage fiercely with materiality and potentiality and thus unleash baroque art and architecture as productive and transformational.

The matter of miracles Helen Hills, 2021-02-02 This book investigates baroque architecture

Goodnight Sweet Prince David Dickinson, 2011-09-01. Mystery surrounds the death of Queen Victoria's grandson. England 1892. Victoria, Queen and Empress, is in the 54th year of her reign when her grandson, Prince Eddy, eldest son of the Prince of Wales, is found slaughtered in his bed at Sandringham. Terrified of more royal scandal, the Prince of Wales and his spin doctors decide to cover up the facts and the murder is disguised as death by influenza. Lord Francis Powerscourt, an Irish investigator, is privately asked to find the killer. His quest takes him on a journey through the prince's debauched and dissolute past across Europe to the misty waterways of Venice where, amidst scandal and suicide, Powerscourt finally unravels the mystery of the sweet prince's last goodnight. PRAISE FOR THE BOOK: In this excellent novel, Dickinson weaves a tale of blackmail and murder among the royals late in Victoria's reign; the characters and the plot soar upwards and carry us in their wake. Powerscourt's debut in this intoxicating book is the start of a gilded life in the archives of crime. James Naughtie.

Women in Early Indian Buddhism Alice Collett, 2014. This volume is a broad-ranging comparative study with translations of texts, sections of texts and textual fragments that are concerned with women in early Indian Buddhism, including study of texts in Gandhari, Sanskrit, Pali, Chinese, Tibetan and Sinhala. Healing Spaces Esther M. Sternberg MD, 2010-09-30. Sternberg explores the marvelously rich nexus of mind and body, perception and place. Primary Sources and Asian Pasts Peter C. Bisschop, Elizabeth A. Cecil, 2020-11-09. This conference volume unites a wide range of scholars working in the fields of history, archaeology, religion, art and philology in an effort to explore new perspectives and methods in the study of primary sources from premodern South and Southeast Asia. The contributions engage with primary sources including texts, images, material artefacts, monuments as well as archaeological sites and landscapes and draw needed attention to highly adaptable, innovative and dynamic modes of cultural production within traditional idioms. The volume works to develop categories of historical analysis that cross disciplinary boundaries and represent a wide variety of methodological concerns. By revisiting premodern sources, Asia Beyond Boundaries also addresses critical issues of temporality and periodization that attend established categories in Asian Studies such as the Classical Age or the Gupta Period. This volume represents the culmination of the European Research Council (ERC) Synergy project Asia.
