was characterized not only by terrorism and police brutality but also by counterculture aesthetics Mair draws from archives grey literatures popular culture art and memorial and curatorial practices to explore the sensorial aspects of guerrilla communications performed by the RAF as well as the 2nd of June Movement and the Socialist Patients Collective Turning to cultural and artistic responses to the decade and its legacy of raw public feelings Mair also examines works by Eleanor Antin Erin Cosgrove Christoph Draeger Bruce LaBruce Gerhard Richter and others Reconsidering an enigmatic period in the history of terrorism Guerrilla Aesthetics innovatively engages with the inherent connections between violence performance the senses and memory
