Building Schools, Making Doctors Katherine L. Carroll, 2022-05-31 In the late nineteenth century medical educators intent on transforming American physicians into scientifically trained elite professionals recognized the value of medical school design for their reform efforts Between 1893 and 1940 nearly every medical college in the country rebuilt or substantially renovated its facility In Building Schools Making Doctors Katherine Carroll reveals how the schools constructed during this fifty year period did more than passively house a remodeled system of medical training they actively participated in defining and promoting an innovative pedagogy modern science and the new physician Interdisciplinary and wide ranging her study moves architecture from the periphery of medical education to the center uncovering a network of medical educators architects and philanthropists who believed that the educational environment itself shaped how students learned and the type of physicians they became Carroll offers the first comprehensive study of the science and pedagogy formulated by the buildings the influence of the schools donors and architects the impact of the structures on the urban landscape and the local community and the facilities privileging of white men within the medical profession during this formative period for physicians and medical schools Nursing History Review, Volume 3 Joan E. The Nurse in History and Opera Judith Barger, 2024-04-08 From Scarabea Artusa's old nurse in Francesco Mannelli's La Maga Fuminata 1638 Venice through the Canadian nursing sisters in Stephanie Martin's Llandovery Castle 2018 Toronto over one hundred nurse characters appear in opera roles ranging from silent cast extra to principal singer The Nurse in History and Opera From Servant to Sister explores that role over the span of opera's existence Judith Barger examines the nurse character in opera within the sociohistorical context of her real life counterparts off stage the progression of the nurse from servant to sister both inside and outside the opera house is a commentary on how society has viewed its women The book then discusses textual and musical interactions between opera's nurses and other characters with attention to what the nurse's role contributes to opera in six categories identified as common to opera's nurses Comic Former Knowledgeable Motherly Scheming and Specialized When viewed through the lens of social history opera's nurse characters merit attention for the glimpse that they offer of a unique musical and dramatic journey from servant to sister and for the commentary that they offer on women's perceived place and status not only on the opera stage but in society as well View the author's website here Judith Barger Author Nurse Historian Music Scholar

Women and Health in America Judith Walzer Leavitt, 1999 Organised chronologically and then by topic this volume covers studies of women and health in the colonial and revolutionary periods through the Civil War The remainder of the book focuses on the late 19th and 20th centuries

Women in the United States Military Judith Bellafaire, 2011-01-26 Women's participation in the U S Armed Forces has grown over time in response to the national need for their services Throughout each era of American history patriotic women volunteered to serve their country in a wide variety of official and unofficially sanctioned capacities When there was a call to duty the United States Armed Forces always relied upon women to be a part of the effort This book provides information to enable students and scholars to understand the effect women have had on wars that have shaped the United States

Teaching in Black and White Barbara E. Mattick, 2022-12-13 Teaching in Black and White The Sisters of St Joseph in the American South discusses the work of the Sisters of St Joseph of the city of St Augustine who came to Florida from France in 1866 to teach newly freed blacks after the Civil War and remain to this day It also tells the story of the Sisters of St Joseph of Georgia who sprang from the motherhouse in St Augustine A significant part of the book is a comparison of the Sisters of St Josephs work against that of their major rivals missionaries from the Protestant American Missionary Association Using letters the Sisters wrote back to their motherhouse in France the book provides rare glimpses into the personal and professional lives of these women religious in St Augustine and other parts of Florida and Georgia from the mid nineteenth century through the era of anti Catholicism in the early twentieth century South It carries the story through 1922 the end of the pioneer years of the Sisters of St Josephs work in Florida and the end of Sisters of St Joseph of Georgia s existence as a distinct order Through the lenses of Catholicism Florida and Southern history gender and race the book addresses the Protestant concept of domesticity and how it was reinforced in Catholic terms by women who seemingly defied the ideal It also relates the Sisters contributions in shaping life in the South during Reconstruction as they established elite academies and free schools created orphanages ministered to all during severe yellow fever epidemics and fought the specter of anti Catholicism as it crept across the rural regions of the country To date little has been written about Catholics in the South much less the women religious who served there This book helps to fill that gap Teaching in Black and White provides rare glimpses into the personal and professional lives of women religious in Florida and Georgia from the mid nineteenth to early twentieth century

Anthropology of Nursing Karen Holland, 2019-09-09 This book aims to introduce nurses and other healthcare professionals to how anthropology can help them understand nursing as a profession and as a culture Drawing on key anthropological concepts the book facilitates the understanding and critical consideration of nursing practice as seen across a wide range of health care contexts and which impacts the delivery of appropriate care for service users Considering the fields in which nurses work the book argues that in order for nurses to optimize their roles as deliverers of patient care they must not only engage with the realities of the cultural world of the patient but also that of their own multi professional cultural environment The only book currently in the field on anthropology of nursing this book will be a valuable resource for nursing students at all academic levels especially where they can pursue specific modules in the subject as well as those other students pursuing medical anthropology courses As well as this it will be an essential text for those post graduate students who wish to consider alternative world views from anthropology and their application in nursing and healthcare in addition to their undertaking ethnographic research to explore nursing in all its fields of practice

God Leads in Perplexities, Joys and Sorrows Iris Hayden Stober, 2013 Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thou art with me thy rod and thy staff they comfort me Ps 23 4 This verse quickly became a resounding theme in Iris Stober's life The little farm girl from Iowa traded the simple country landscape for a life filled with adventure and emotional challenges Relive her journey as she follows her dreams and travels the world trusting in God for all her needs In her unfailing commitment to God's will for her life Iris faced some of the hardest experiences one can imagine From something as simple as choosing a career path to the dreadful reality of losing most of her family Iris looked for God in every situation Through the good times and bad Iris found that God consistently took care of her and He still does today God Leads in Perplexities Joys and Sorrows is the life story of Iris Stober a woman whose faith was tested but who stood strong and held onto the hand of God through her darkest hour

Extension Service Review United States. Federal Extension Service, 1967 Extension Service Review, 1969 BEHIND THE LOCKED DOOR Gregg M. Schultz RN, 2023-03-30 One man not sure where his next job would come from is employed by God where he will compassionately care for society's least fortunate the mentally or emotionally ill when they transition into the psychiatric hospital system I am that man This is my story of working in the psychiatric system usually in a hospital setting This volume is a telling of twenty nine years of caring for and about people who but for the grace of God could be me or my family It is a telling of surviving and thriving in often difficult circumstances Starting as a mental health worker in 1988 I received my registered nurse license in 1993 and continued as a psychiatric nurse until I ended compensated employment in 2017 This is a telling of covering the naked and treating the self inflicted wounds of the bloody The whys and logics of many of the disorders encountered are addressed in caring and often wry commentary The actual workings of the psychiatric hospital and my observations of that environment are presented Life as it is actually lived often at its most visceral level is on display here I frequently make reference to a person's WIIFM what's in it for me as a dominant factor motivating the behavior of people both the patients and the hospital staff I do not spare myself when addressing WIIFM as a behavior motivator There is caring for wounded hearts and how to manage those whose hearts are beyond either wounding or caring The legalities as well as the realities of how the mental health system works and the protections for those who are a danger to themselves or others or unable to care for themselves are presented here and I deal with the realities of psychiatric hospitalization and dispel the nonsense of a seventy-two hour psychiatric hold There is triumph and tragedy presented here in a uniquely engaging style by a true storyteller From Hogs to Heaven Tory C. Anderson, 2011-08-18 Laurel Rae Dickinson started her life during the Great Depression on an Iowa farm The third daughter of a farmer who needed boys she was expected to command mules drive tractors milk the cows and keep the old sow in line While she did her best in the end she didn't prove as manly as her two older sisters and may have been a disappointment to her father This changed after her accidental entry into the nursing profession She started out as assistant to a neurosurgeon and eventually found the high adrenaline life as an emergency room nurse where eventually she rose to be the director Just as her career and family life should have been peaking everything started falling apart as she found herself divorced and lying in her own emergency room with a broken neck looking up at her co-workers For many life would have ended here or at least been dimmed For Laurel it turned out to be just a new beginning in her journey from a hog farm in Iowa to finding a bit of Heaven on Earth Follow Laurel on her journey where through the decisions and deeds in her life she gives great insights into opportunity courage priorities perseverance and love Essentials of Basic Nursing Procedures Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2024-07-24 A practical manual on basic nursing procedures including hygiene vital signs and patient handling designed for nursing students and early clinical practice The Spirit of Nursing The Spirit of Nursing Project, 2019-01-28 The Spirit of Nursing is filled with stories from more than 40 authors who have been inspired by their choice of career Collectively they boast 1 091 years of practice diverse certifications and numerous degrees Some have just begun their practice and others have worked as nurses for half a century or more Read how we have earned the true credentials needed to provide care for strangers family members and each other Learn how we have earned the academic and honorary titles required to lead each other in our profession The stories we have collected here cover the moment each contributor knew he or she was to become a nurse what was learned and what was not in nursing school and unforgettable patients and colleagues But this book is about more than the sum of all of the parts that make up our nursing trajectories It is about the process of becoming and being a nursing colleague Filled with professionals who have earned their distinction as leaders in practice and healers in their communities it is rumination on what it means to care It is also a thank you to a line of work that has given us so much
