Рассматриваются внешние и внутренние факторы влияния на развитие современной библиотеки. Эти факторы обусловлены глобализационными процессами в современном обществе. В таких условиях развитие зарубежного библиотековедения приобретает все более междисциплинарный характер. Взгляды зарубежных библиотековедов весьма противоречивы, но тем не менее и теоретические изыскания, и практическая деятельность зарубежных библиотек имеют ясно выраженную цель – доказать право библиотеки на существование в информационном обществе, утвердить профессию библиотекаря как необходимую в социально-экономическом континууме, предоставить обществу неоспоримые доказательства высокоэффективной работы библиотек в новых экономических условиях, то есть доказать эффективность ее работы.

Ключевые слова: зарубежное библиотековедение, США, Канада, статус библиотековедения, библиотека, эффективность библиотечной деятельности, позитивизм, посткласическая наука, документология.

Both external and internal factors influencing on the development of a modern library are considered. These factors are determined by globalization processes in modern society. In such circumstances, the development of foreign librarianship becomes increasingly interdisciplinary. The views of foreign specialists in librarianship are rather controversial, but nevertheless, theoretical researches and practical activities of foreign libraries have a strong purpose – to prove the right of library to exist in the information society, to adapt the profession as a librarian as a necessary one in socio-economic continuum, to provide public the undeniable proof of a highly effective library work in new economic conditions, that is to prove the efficiency of its work.

Key words: library and information science, USA, Canada, librarianship status, library, library activities efficiency, performance, positivism, post non-classical science, philosophy of documentation.

Начиная с середины 1980-х гг., современные библиотеки во всем мире испытывают на себе последствия целого ряда негативных процессов в мировой экономике, в том числе инфляции и увеличения затрат всех типов. Все эти процессы, причем процессы, связанные с глобализацией всех общественных явлений [1], обусловлены следующими факторами:

- повышением стоимости единицы публикации, на что особенно болезненно реагируют подразделения комплектования научных и вузовских библиотек, испытывающие острую необходимость в покупке иностранной периодики;
- увеличением объемов публикаций всех типов;
- ростом цен на типографскую продукцию, обусловленным в первую очередь ростом цен на энергоносители;
- растущими информационными запросами пользователей;
- повышением профессиональной нагрузки на персонал библиотек, усложнением обязанностей библиотекарей и, как следствие, изменением роли библиотекаря, обусловленные внедрением информационного технического оборудования и необходимостью подстраивать библиотечную технологию под новые объективные изменения;

- неизбежным ростом заработной платы сотрудников библиотек в изменившихся условиях работы, связанных с внедрением новых библиотечных технологий;
- возросшими расходами на приобретение специализированного оборудования для библиотек и его поддержание в рабочем состоянии;
- взаимодействием библиотек с коммерческими структурами в условиях рыночной среды, что главным образом обусловлено внедрением новых информационных технологий, обслуживаемым зданиям;
- ужесточением контроля расходования средств со стороны финансовых органов, управленческих государственных структур, заинтересованных лиц.

В основном перечисленные факторы относятся к внешней среде. К тому же не осталось неизменным и само общество, пронизанное информаци-
