Orpheus Euridice Vocal Score:

Orpheus in the Marketplace Tim Carter, 2013-11-04 The Florentine musician Jacopo Peri 1561 1633 is known as the composer of the first operas they include the earliest to survive complete Euridice 1600 in which Peri sang the role of Orpheus The recent discovery of a large number of private account books belonging to him and his family allows for a greater exploration of Peri's professional and personal life Richard Goldthwaite an economic historian and Tim Carter a musicologist have done more however than write a biography their investigation exposes the value of such financial documents as a primary source for an entire period This record of Peri's wide ranging investments and activities in the marketplace enables the first detailed account of the Florentine economy in the late sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries and opens a new perspective on one of Europe's principal centers of capitalism His economic circumstances reflect continuities and transformations in Florentine society and the strategies for negotiating them under the Medici grand dukes They also allow a reevaluation of Peri the singer and composer that elucidates the cultural life of a major artistic center even in changing times providing a quite different view of what it meant to be a musician in late Renaissance Italy An Index to Music in Selected Historical Anthologies of Western Art Music, Part 1

Mara Parker, 2019-01-01 An Index to Music in Selected Historical Anthologies of Western Art Music is the essential reference for music history and music theory instructors for finding specific listings and details for all the pieces included in more than 140 anthologies published between 1931 and 2016 Containing over 5 000 individual listings this concise book is an indispensable tool for teaching music history and theory Since many anthologies exist in multiple editions this Index provides instructors students and researchers with the means to locate specific compositions in both print and online anthologies This book includes listings by composer and title as well as indexes of authors titles and first lines of text for music from antiquity through the early twenty first century Catalog of the
