Power and Society in Africa Jacques Jérôme Pierre Maquet,1971 Power and Society in Africa Jacques Maquet,1971 Where the Power Lies Bevelyne Sithole,2002-01-01 The Impact of Ethnic, Political, and Religious Violence on Northern Nigeria, and a Theological Reflection on Its Healing Sunday Bobai Agang,2011-09-07 This publication seeks to challenge established thinking about the causes of violence in Northern Nigeria It explores immediate and long term effects of that violence through reflection study and survey of previous research The fundamental argument within is that ethnic political and religious violence has affected Christian perspectives and core values and thus has hampered efforts towards just peacemaking Power and Society in Africa J. Maquet,1971 Postcolonial African Migration to the West Belachew Gebrewold,2024-07-04 Postcolonial African migration to the West is not only a spatial movement in search of material and physical security but also an expression of the mimetic desire for being by imitating the West or whitening oneself against the background of the dehumanizing historical legacies of slavery colonialism and Western dominance It is a flight from oneself from perceived inadequacies To migrate to the West is an expression of the desire for being not through detachment from the fascinating West but rather through adoration and imitation of its lifestyle beauty ideals and soft and hard power and by living in the West The model the West builds ubiquitous anti migrant physical and virtual fences which the imitator tries to overcome The more the model re strengthens these fences the more the imitator tries to scale them The anti migrant fences are the meeting point of the model s perceived superiority admirability and desirability on the one hand and on the other hand the imitator s inferiority complex and inner tension between the paradoxical desire for detachment from the model and its passionate imitation at the same time This book argues that African migration to the West will continue even in the absence of poverty conflicts and climate change because it is also about the mimetic desire for being Cultural Self-comprehension of Nations Hans Köchler,1978 The Equitable Forest Carol J. Pierce Colfer,2010-09-30 Research and policy toward sustainable forest management have often paid incomplete attention to the well being of local populations and their activities as forest managers Where there has been recognition of local communities the roles of marginalized groups and women are usually not well understood This is despite evidence that equity and social relationships including gender roles are important factors in the ways that communities manage forest resources overall and adapt to change Research and policy toward sustainable forest management have often paid incomplete attention to the well being of local populations and their activities as forest managers Where there has been recognition of local communities the roles of marginalized groups and women are usually not well understood This is despite evidence that equity and social relationships including gender roles are important factors in the ways that communities manage forest resources overall and adapt to change The Culture and Psychology Reader Nancy Rule Goldberger,Jody Veroff,1995-08 A collection of readings relevant to the development of an intercultural psychology which takes into account the different circumstances

needs values constructions of reality and worldviews and belief systems that significantly shape the experience and behavior of cultural groups The 34 papers and introductory essay are arranged in four parts the politics of difference development adaption and the acquisition of culture self and other in cultural context and diagnostic assessment treatment and cultural bias Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The School Achievement of Minority Children Ulric

Neisser,2020-11-25 Lower school achievement of minority children is usually explained by projecting deficits upon the children deficits that are attributed to genetic or environmental causes In contrast with tradition the contributors to this book demonstrate how group differences in academic accomplishment and test scores are affected by cultural factors and standard educational practices as well Catalog of the Library of the National Museum of African Art Branch of the Smithsonian Institution Libraries Smithsonian Institution. Routledge Library Editions: Historical Security Various,2021-08-26 This 12 volume set contains titles originally published between 1957 and 1992 International in scope the set looks at security and military history covering several battles particularly the first and second world wars Highlighting the difference between theory and practice it also explores the people involved in the policy making and strategy of war and the leaders tasked with carrying those decisions out Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1999 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1976

Science, Society and Power James Fairhead,Melissa Leach,2003-10-16 In this book James Fairhead and Melissa Leach bring science to the heart of debates about globalisation exploring transformations in global science and contrasting effects in Guinea one of the world s poorest countries and Trinidad a more prosperous industrialised and urbanised island The book focuses on environment forestry and conservation sciences that are central to these countries and involve resources that many depend upon for their livelihoods It examines the relationships between policies bureaucracies and particular types of scientific enquiry and explores how ordinary people the media and educational practices engage with this In particular it shows how science becomes part of struggles over power resources and legitimacy The authors take a unique ethnographic perspective linking approaches in anthropology development and science studies They address critically prominent debates in each and explore opportunities for new forms of participation public engagement and transformation in the social relations of science Decolonizing Civil Society in Mozambique Tanja Kleibl,2021-08-26 By demonstrating that Western conceptions of civil society have provided the framework for interpreting societies in the Global South Decolonizing Civil Society in Mozambique argues that it is only through a critical deconstruction of these concepts that we can start to re balance global power relationships both in academic discourse and in development practices Examining the exclusionary discourses framing the support for Western type NGOs in the development discourse often to the exclusion of local social actors this book dissects mainstream contemporary ideas about civil society and finds a new means by which to identify local forms of social action often based in traditional structures and spiritual discourses Outlining new conceptual ideas for an alternative framing of Mozambique's civil society Kleibl proposes a series of fresh theoretical issues and questions alongside empirical research moving towards a series of new policy and practice arguments for rethinking and decolonizing civil society in the Global South
