between the state and local communities with particular reference to societies in the developing world Monique Nuijten shows how rituals of bureaucratic power and accusations of corruption give flesh to incredible fantasies and conspiracy theories among officials peasants and brokers At the same time she shows that in this labyrinthine world of bureaucratic obstacles and state control local agrarian communities manage to find certain room for autonomy Drawing on her extensive fieldwork in Mexico Nuijten draws wide conclusions that can be applied to many societies Providing a detailed ethnography she focuses on various themes including a theoretical anthropology of state power families and factionalism after agrarian reform local organisation questions of law corruption and development theory The Language of Faith in Southern Africa: Spirit World, Power, Community, Holism Hermen Kroesbergen, 2019-12-12 The aim of this book is to provide a way to do justice to an African language of faith In systematic theology anthropology and philosophy of religion similar debates about how to interpret an African language of faith are ongoing Trying to avoid the othering discourses of past generations scholars are careful to take seriously what people in Africa say without portraying people's beliefs as weird or backward Yet in their desperate attempts to avoid othering these theologians anthropologists and philosophers often painfully misconstrue the language of faith in Africa Understanding the language of faith in Southern Africa is not an easy task How should we take seriously the form of language that often seems so strange and different I argue that after African inculturation theology and black liberation theology a better way to make sense of being a Christian in Southern Africa is to pay close attention to people's language of faith The way in which people speak of the spirit world or powers in Africa appears strange to outsiders and the sense of community and the holistic worldview differentiates the African way of life from its Euro American counterparts When proper attention is paid to the use of concepts like spirit world power community and holism language of faith in Southern Africa is neither as strange as it may seem nor as romantic By investigating these distinguishing concepts that colour language of faith in Southern Africa this book contributes to future projects of both fellow theologians who try to construct a contemporary African theology and those who are interested in theology in Africa given the well known southward shift of the centre of gravity of Christianity Power, Community, and Racial Killing in East St. Louis M. Stone,2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president s followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr s writing on politics and in Barack Obama s use of the theologian s thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich s critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author s critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead s philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy
