Power Of Community:

Community Power and Empowerment Brian D. Christens, 2019-01-16 Many people want to help bring about changes in their neighborhoods workplaces and communities Leaders and scholars of change efforts are likewise eager for insights into what makes some organizations and coalitions capable of building and exercising power Why are some groups successful in making changes in policies and systems and in sustaining their momentum over time while others struggle or never really get off the ground With Community Power and Empowerment Brian D Christens brings the most comprehensive analysis of empowerment theory yet conducted to bear on these questions taking aim at many of the longstanding weaknesses and ambiguities of empowerment theory research and practice For example one major hindrance is that most notions of empowerment have not been coherently connected with community power In addition research has emphasized psychological aspects of empowerment over organizational processes and has neglected community empowerment processes to an even greater extent By linking empowerment and community power Christens constructs a holistic framework for assessing and comparing community driven change efforts This book offers new guidance for inquiries into outcomes and impacts of empowerment processes on health and well being providing a resource for researchers organizational leaders practitioners and anyone interested in collective action for change The Power of Community Barrett

Community Organization and Social Action Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-09-23 In this book we will study about how communities can be mobilized and empowered through collective action Topics include principles of community organization leadership advocacy and planning for sustainable development

Power, Community and the State Monique Nuijten, 2003-04-20 This book explores the balance of power between the state and local communities with particular reference to societies in the developing world Monique Nuijten shows how rituals of bureaucratic power and accusations of corruption give flesh to incredible fantasies and conspiracy theories among officials peasants and brokers At the same time she shows that in this labyrinthine world of bureaucratic obstacles and state control local agrarian communities manage to find certain room for autonomy Drawing on her extensive fieldwork in Mexico Nuijten draws wide conclusions that can be applied to many societies Providing a detailed ethnography she focuses on various themes including a theoretical anthropology of state power families and factionalism after agrarian reform local organisation questions of law corruption and development theory

The Language of Faith in Southern Africa: Spirit World, Power, Community, Holism Hermen Kroesbergen, 2019-12-12 The aim of this book is to provide a way to do justice to an African language of faith In systematic theology anthropology and philosophy of religion similar debates about how to interpret an African language of faith are ongoing Trying to avoid the othering discourses of past generations scholars are careful to take seriously what people in Africa say without portraying people's beliefs as weird or backward Yet in their desperate attempts to avoid othering these theologians anthropologists and philosophers often painfully misconstrue the language of faith in Africa Understanding the language of faith in Southern Africa is not an easy task How should we take seriously the form of language that often seems so strange and different I argue that after African inculturation theology and black liberation theology a better way to make sense of being a Christian in Southern Africa is to pay close attention to people's language of faith The way in which people speak of the spirit world or powers in Africa appears strange to outsiders and the sense of community and the holistic worldview differentiates the African way of life from its Euro American counterparts When proper attention is paid to the use of concepts like spirit world power community and holism language of faith in Southern Africa is neither as strange as it may seem nor as romantic By investigating these distinguishing concepts that colour language of faith in Southern Africa this book contributes to future projects of both fellow theologians who try to construct a contemporary African theology and those who are interested in theology in Africa given the well known southward shift of the centre of gravity of Christianity

Power, Community, and Racial Killing in East St. Louis M. McLaughlin, 2005-11-27 Malcolm McLaughlin's work presents a detailed analysis of the East St Louis race riot in 1917

offering new insights into the construction of white identity and racism He illuminates the world of East St Louis life in its factories and neighborhoods its popular culture and City Hall politics to place the race riot in the context of the city's urban development Community and Power Robert A. Nisbet, 1967 Electric, Electronic and Control Engineering Fun Shao, Wise Shu, Tracy Tian, 2015-07-03 Electric Electronic and Control Engineering contains the contributions presented at the 2015 International Conference on Electric Electronic and Control Engineering ICEECE 2015 Phuket Island Thailand 5-6 March 2015 The book is divided into four main topics Electric and Electronic Engineering Mechanic and Control Engineering Informati The Electrical Review, 1891 Community Mediation Karen Grover Duffy, James W. Grosch, Paul V. Olczak, 1991-04-26 In recent years the mediation movement has seen tremendous growth with significant advances being made in both research and practice Despite these advances researchers and practitioners have remained relatively isolated from one another Bridging the gap COMMUNITY MEDIATION is dedicated to the mutual education of both researchers and mediators It makes the findings of research accessible to practitioners and the issues of concern to practice available to researchers Thus this handbook affords researchers an excellent opportunity to learn more about actual techniques and enables practitioners to benefit from the latest research in the field Community Power and Empowerment Brian D. Christens, 2019 Community Power and Empowerment synthesizes research and practice on the topics of community power and empowerment and by doing so address key questions in the practice community psychology and related fields Excel Senior High School Jenny Harrison, 2002 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2002 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics Ronald H. Stone, 2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president's followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr's writing on politics and in Barack Obama's use of the theologian's thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich's critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author's critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead's philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy Alternating Current - Social Innovation in Community Energy Arwen Colell, 2021-05-10 Community energy projects give their own answers to the challenges of energy system change They are social innovations By building new relations between local economies communities and technical infrastructures these projects not only change the energy system but also respective power structures Drawing on case studies from Germany Denmark and Scotland this book shows the importance of community ties and shared symbols for successful processes of transformation and develops recommendations for policy decision makers

Community-Based Tourism in the Developing World Peter Wiltshier, Alan Clarke, 2019-10-16 This book analyses community based approaches to developing and regenerating tourism destinations in the developing world addressing this central issue in sustainable tourism practices It reviews a variety of systems useful for analysing and understanding management issues to offer new insight into the skills and resources that are needed for implementation ongoing monitoring and review of community based tourism Adopting a multidisciplinary approach this book explores alternatives to the dominant interpretation which argues against tourism as a benefit for community development International case studies throughout the book illustrate and vouch for tourism as a transformative force while clarifying the need to manage expectations in sustainable tourism for community development rejuvenation and regeneration Emphasis is placed on accruing relevant decision support material and creating services products and management approaches that will endure and adapt as change necessitates This will be of great interest to upper level students researchers and academics in the fields of tourism impacts sustainability ethics and development as well as the broader field of geography
