Power Of Horses And Other Stories:

The Power of Horses and Other Stories Elizabeth Cook-Lynn, 1990 The fifteen stories contained in The Power of Horses portray each in a different way the sensitive and enduring culture of the Dakota of the Upper Plains and convey many of the basic truths that have sustained Elizabeth Cook Lynn's people for countless generations Though the stories are often filled with violence and grief they are also brimming with beauty gentleness charm and humor In these striking and memorable tales of Dakota country Joseph grieves that the body of his middle son will never be returned to his native shores from the distant World War I battlefields where he was killed family members gather to bury their father and barely survive their own weaknesses and bickering a grandmother takes her grandchild for a walk and imparts to the child some of the old wisdom of times past a whining hound dog primordial to the Dakota competes unwittingly with Reverend Tileston's efforts to bring the word of the Christian God to a tight knit family and wins Magpie is a poet but is also on parole and just as his friends have begun to rethink the finality of justice he is accidentally shot and killed in the white man's jail Cook Lynn writes unsparingly yet compassionately of reservation life in the last century In each of these gemlike stories she reveals something of the mystery and essential toughness of the Dakota people This Land Is Our Land Agnes Regan Perkins, Alethea K. woman from New England had written them Her style though ornate by our 20th century standards adds to its atmosphere like heavy Baroque furniture in a large and creepy house The title story presents a self centered and captivating woman who ruthlessly steals her orphan cousin s lover In Circumstance a pioneer woman returning home through the woods at night is caught by a panther her husband who has come to save her can only watch from the ground as she sings for her life pinned in a tree A train engineer hallucinates again and again that he is running over his wife And Mrs Craven who s a bit weak in the head mindlessly repeats Three men went down cellar and only two came up These stories combine elements of the best ghost stories timing detail and character with just enough chill to make you think twice about turning out your lights at night
