Martial Culture in the Lifeways of US Servicemembers and Veterans Nathan J. Hogan, 2024-02-13 This book develops a new concept martial culture with which to problematize and reframe thinking surrounding the lifeways of US servicemembers by exploring the values beliefs norms and rituals they are exposed to and practice during military service By reuniting the two concepts of servicemember and veteran into one overarching cultural model the author shows how the concept of martial culture can be used to acknowledge the unbroken holistic multidimensional life cycle of an individual Adopting a comparative mythological approach and drawing upon Roman Navajo Hindu Norse and Japanese myths that speak to the lived experiences of servicemembers veterans and their families it weaves together ancient voices and contemporary servicemember experiential existences to offer new insight into the psychological experience of servicemembers It will be of strong interest to psychologists who seek to develop their treatment of veterans by understanding the unique lifeway of service without judgement and offering a balanced integrated spiritual connection while pushing back against both inaccurate assumptions of martial lifeways and the influences of industrialized secular approaches to service It will also appeal to those within the fields of military sociology and psychology

Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 2000 Selling Hitler Nicholas O'Shaughnessy, 2016-09-01 Hitler was one of the few politicians who understood that persuasion was everything deployed to anchor an entire regime in the confections of imagery rhetoric and dramaturgy The Nazis pursued propaganda not just as a tool an instrument of government but also as the totality the raison d'être the medium through which power itself was exercised Moreover Nicholas O'Shaughnessy argues Hitler not Goebbels was the prime mover in the propaganda regime of the Third Reich its editor and first author Under the Reich everything was a propaganda medium a building block of public consciousness from typography to communiqués to architecture to weapons design There were groups to initiate rumours and groups to spread graffiti Everything could be interrogated for its propaganda potential every surface inscribed with polemical meaning whether an enemy city's name an historical epic or the poster on a neighbourhood wall But Hitler was in no sense an innovator his ideas were always second hand Rather his expertise was as a packager fashioning from the accumulated mass of icons and ideas the historic debris the labyrinths and byways of the German mind a modern and brilliant political show articulated through deftly managed symbols and rituals The Reich would have been unthinkable without propaganda it would not have been the Reich
