The Press Gang Mark Wahlgren Summers,2018-08-25 Relations between the press and politicians in modern America have always been contentious In The Press Gang Mark Summers tells the story of the first skirmishes in this ongoing battle Following the Civil War independent newspapers began to separate themselves from partisan control and assert direct political influence The first investigative journalists uncovered genuine scandals such as those involving the Tweed Ring but their standard practices were often sensational as editors and reporters made their reputations by destroying political figures not by carefully uncovering the facts Objectivity as a professional standard scarcely existed Considering more than ninety different papers Summers analyzes not only what the press wrote but also what they chose not to write and he details both how they got the stories and what mistakes they made in reporting them He exposes the peculiarly ambivalent relationship of dependence and distaste among reporters and politicians In exploring the shifting ground between writing the stories and making the news Summers offers an important contribution to the history of journalism and mid nineteenth century politics and uncovers a story that has come to dominate our understanding of government and the media

Finding My Power of Want Tony Hebert ,2024-04-01 The instinct to want is present from the start of life as we all yearn for our first nourishment at birth Want possesses an unquenchable appetite that relentlessly drives us towards the satisfying flavour of success The insatiable desire for success is an aggressive force that compels us to pursue our dreams relentlessly Our wants in our life keeps pushing us forward shaping our actions goals and feeding our hunger for success The power of want for family happiness productivity genuine friendships good fortune good health spiritual support self confidence or self care is inherent in human behaviour Finding My Power of Want by Tony J Hebert examines how self awareness hard work preparedness and community support contribute to achieving one s life goals Even in the face of doubt and uncertainty self awareness serves as our guiding compass to stay on track The concept of wealth accumulation is not heavily tied to want Wanting good friends a loving family a successful career and genuine happiness all play a role in one s success in life Hebert s autobiography explores his life journey of discovering the power of want and how it contributed to his career and retirement success Furthermore he skillfully tells the story of his personal relationships beginning at age 8 that sparked this ability offering guidance on how readers can harness their self awareness to pursue their dreams and goals The book further explores the power of community and personal ambition as well as the heartbreaking emptiness that comes when your support system falls apart Hebert s book is dedicated to all those who made a positive impact on his life such as coaches cheerleaders peers family mentors neighbours health and church leaders and the countless volunteers who joined him in bettering their community He names hundreds of them Finding My Power of Want is an innovative study of human behaviour using his personal experiences as a map to highlight its significance This is a must read for those who want to develop self awareness and harness their personal power to achieve both their personal and community goals

An Introduction to Concepts of Nutrition: Facilitator's Handbook Anja Morris-Paxton,2019-02-13 The concepts of nutrition encompass two kinds of knowledge and ability the first one is a knowledge and understanding of the individual nutrients that we need as human beings to work learn socialise and exercise at our best We need to understand what they are what they do and what happens if we do not have these nutrients The second one is the ability to use these nutrients together to understand which foods they come from and what to do with these foods so that we get all the nutrients we need in the amounts that we need them This programme looks at nutrition from a holistic point of view that it not only gives facts about the nutrients we need but also looks at what to do with our newfound knowledge and understanding
