Power Of Place How Our Surroundings Shape:

The Power of Place Winifred Gallagher,1993 Are New Yorkers and Californians so different because they live in such different settings Why do some of us prefer the city to the country How do urban settings increase crime Why do we feel better after an experience in nature In this fascinating book Gallagher explores the complex relationship between people and the places in which they live and work

Landscapes of the Sacred Belden C. Lane,2002 This substantially expanded edition of Belden C Lane s Landscapes of the Sacred includes a new introductory chapter that offers three new interpretive models for understanding American sacred space Lane maintains his approach of interspersing shorter and more personal pieces among full length essays that explore how Native American early French and Spanish Puritan New England and Catholic Worker traditions has each expressed the connection between spirituality and place A new section at the end of the book includes three chapters that address methodological issues in the study of spirituality the symbol making process of religious experience and the tension between place and placelessness in Christian spirituality

Spiral Dynamics Prof. Don Edward Beck,Christopher C. Cowan,2014-12-05 Spiral Dynamics introduces a new model for plotting the enormous economic and commercial shifts that are making contemporary business practice so complex and apparently fragmented Focusing on cutting edge leadership management systems processes procedures and techniques the authors synthesize changes such as Increasing cultural diversity Powerful new social responsibility initiatives The arrival of a truly global marketplace This is an inspiring book for managers consultants strategists and leaders planning for success in the business world in the 21st century

Teardown Gordon Young,2021-02-23 After living in San Francisco for fifteen years journalist Gordon Young found himself yearning for his Rust Belt hometown Flint Michigan the birthplace of General Motors and the star of the Michael Moore documentary Roger Me Hoping to rediscover and help a place that had once boasted one of the world s highest per capita income levels but had become one of the country s most impoverished and dangerous cities he returned to Flint with the intention of buying a house What he found was a place of stark contrasts and dramatic stories where an exotic dancer could afford a lavish mansion speculators scooped up cheap houses by the dozen on eBay and arson was often the quickest route to neighborhood beautification Skillfully blending personal memoir historical inquiry and interviews with Flint residents Young constructs a vibrant tale of a once thriving city still fighting despite overwhelming odds to rise from the ashes He befriends a ragtag collection of urban homesteaders and die hard locals who refuse to give up as they try to transform Flint into a smaller greener town that offers lessons for cities all over the world Hard hitting insightful and often painfully funny Teardown reminds us that cities are ultimately defined by people not politics or economics

Educating Multilingual Students in Rural Schools ,2023-03-06 Illuminating issues of diversity at the intersection of rural education and multilingual learners ML in the United States this edited volume brings forth new research that captures the importance of place and rurality in the work of educators who serve multilingual learners and their families The six chapters in this book demonstrate that education for teachers leaders and staff professional development programs and government funded projects aimed to improve rural education need to begin with three interrelated multifaceted principles The first principle is the need to center place and rurality as essential factors that affect education for all educators students and families who live work and attend schools in rural communities Second educators must humanize multilingual students their families and their cultures in ways that go beyond merely acknowledging their presence they must deeply see and understand the lives and hi stories of the multilingual students and families that they serve in their rural schools Finally the third principle involves identifying multilingual resources for ML students and their families Given the persistent inequities in access to resources and opportunities that rural ML students and families face this last principle requires careful planning networking and advocating in ways that can truly effectuate change Contributors are Jioanna Carjuzaa Maria R Coady Paula Golombek Shuzhan Li Kristin Kline Liu Nidza V Marichal Charity Funfe Tatah Mentan Kym O Donnell Stephanie Oudghiri Darrell Peterson Sonja Phillips Jenelle Reeves and Yi Chen Wu

Eco Culture Robert Bell,Robert Ficociello,2017-11-15 The edited collection Eco Culture Disaster Narrative Discourse opens a conversation about the mediated relationship between culture and ecology The dynamic between these two great forces comes into stark relief when a disaster in its myriad forms and narratives reveals the fragility of our ecological and cultural landscapes Disasters are the clashing of culture and ecology in violent and tragic ways and the results of each clash create profound effects to both So much so in fact that the terms ecology and culture are past separation We are far removed from their prior historical binaric connection and they coincide through a supplementary role to each other Ecology and culture are unified

Landscapes of the Heart: Nature, Culture, and the Human Spirit Pasquale De Marco,2025-05-18 In a world where nature and culture are often seen as separate entities this book explores the profound interconnectedness between the two Drawing on personal stories scientific research and philosophical insights it delves into the concept of topophilia the emotional bond we form with the places that hold meaning for us From the bustling city streets to the tranquil countryside from the rugged wilderness to the serene seashore our surroundings profoundly influence our lives They shape our identities values and beliefs They provide us with sustenance shelter and a sense of belonging They inspire our art our literature and our music They are the backdrop for our most cherished memories and our most profound experiences Yet as we have come to dominate and exploit the natural world our connection to it has become strained We have forgotten the importance of place in our lives and the role it plays in our physical mental and spiritual well being We have created a society that is increasingly disconnected from nature a society that is paying the price in terms of environmental degradation social unrest and a loss of meaning and purpose This book is an invitation to reconnect with the natural world and to rediscover the power of place Through a series of personal stories scientific research and philosophical insights it explores the ways in which our environment shapes us and how we in turn shape our environment It examines the challenges and opportunities facing our planet and considers the role that each of us can play in creating a more sustainable and harmonious future Whether you are a nature lover an environmentalist or simply someone who is interested in the human condition this book will offer you new insights into the profound connection between landscapes and the human spirit It will inspire you to see the world in a new light and to appreciate the beauty and wonder of the natural world that surrounds us If you like this book write a review on google books

Gendering Place and Affect

Alex Simpson, Ruth Simpson, Darren T. Baker, 2024-07-30 Drawing on affect theory and the key themes of attachment disruption and belonging this book examines the ways in which our placed surroundings whether urban design border management or organisations shape and form experiences of gender Bringing together key debates across the fields of sociology geography and organisation studies the book sets out new theoretical ground to examine and consolidate shared experiences of what it means to be in or out of place Contributors explore how our gendered selves encounter place and critically examine the way in which experiences of gender shape meanings and attachments as well as how place produces gendered modes of identity inclusion and belonging Emphasizing the intertwined dynamics of affect and being affected the book examines the gendering of place and the placing of gender

The Soul of Place Michael Jones, 2014-07-09 In The Soul of Place Michael Jones explores how our relationship with place aligns us with the underlying patterns of life He does so through stories that ask what is our experience of homecoming and how do we find our way there What is our pattern of belonging including our relationship with people and places that we hold sacred What are the conditions of regenerativity and craft that enable us to give birth to something new How can our stewardship of what is alive within and around us awaken the mythic imagination And how does this open a path for gathering together in a spirit of transformative celebration

Why Conserve Nature? Stephen Thomas Trudgill, Stephen Trudgill, 2022-02-24 A philosophical discussion about the meanings of nature which can give rise to our motivations to conserve nature

Johnson,2007 Americans have had an enduring yet ambivalent obsession with the West as both a place and a state of mind Michael L. Johnson considers how that obsession originated how it has determined attitudes toward and activities in the West and how it has changed over the centuries Spirit and Place Christopher Day,2012-06-14 Built environment surrounds us for 90% of our lives but only now are we realising its influence on the environment our health and how we think feel and behave both individually and socially Spirit how to moderate climate to make places of delight and realign social pressures so places both support society and maximise economic viability Thought provoking and easy to understand Christopher Day uses everyday examples to relate his theories to practice and our experience Contested Architectural Pasts and Futures of a Regional City, Geelong, Australia Mirjana Lozanovska,Ursula de Jong,2024-10-03 This collection of essays highlights current debates for cities undergoing urban renewal focussing on regional cities as places that lead change Like many regional cities Geelong is grappling with the legacy of its industrial architectural heritage and identity This in depth study of the city of Geelong examines theories and realities from the speculative to the mundane critical to change pre emptied by deindustrialisation While this book argues that architecture and the built environment are key to urban renewal an intersectional perspective on Geelong as a place raises contested pasts and territories This brings attention to the dispossession of First Nations people by British colonisers as well as the exploitation of immigrant communities in industrial production Informed by positions on design futures decolonising and cultural urbanisms adaptive re use and the post industrial city the chapters in this book expand an interdisciplinary field relevant to scholars and practitioners in heritage and conservation urban design community engagement and place making more generally Walking Mind Benefits Xena Mindhurst,AI,2025-01-24 Walking Mind Benefits presents a fascinating exploration of how the simple act of walking transforms our cognitive abilities and emotional well being backed by over two decades of scientific research This comprehensive work unveils the powerful connection between physical movement and mental enhancement examining how walking influences everything from brain chemistry to creative thinking Through a careful blend of neuroscience environmental psychology and behavioral medicine the book reveals how this basic human activity produces measurable changes in brain structure and function The book progresses logically through four key sections beginning with the neurological foundations of walking s benefits including its role in promoting hippocampal growth and increasing BDNF production It then explores the psychological aspects of walking in different environments investigating how various settings affect stress reduction and attention restoration Particularly intriguing is the research showing how walking enhances creative thinking and problem solving abilities supported by neuroimaging studies and cognitive performance metrics What sets this book apart is its practical approach to implementing walking based interventions for mental health and cognitive enhancement While maintaining scientific rigor it translates complex neurological concepts into accessible language and actionable protocols The work carefully balances theoretical understanding with real world application making it valuable for both healthcare professionals and general readers seeking evidence based methods to improve their mental well being Through structured walking protocols and specific guidelines readers learn how to optimize their walking practice for maximum cognitive and emotional benefits

The Top Books of the Year Power Of Place How Our Surroundings Shap The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Power Of Place How Our Surroundings Shap : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Power Of Place How Our Surroundings Shap : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Power Of Place How Our Surroundings Shap : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
