The Digital NBA Steven Secular, 2023-06-20 The National Basketball Association reaches a global audience via a multiplatform strategy that leverages its uncanny ability to connect fans to all things NBA Steven Secular brings readers inside the league's global operations and traces the history of the NBA's approach to sports media from its 1980s embrace of cable through the streaming revolution of the twenty first century As fans around the world stream games and other league content NBA teams incorporate foreign languages and cultures into broadcasts to boost their product's appeal to audiences in Brazil China and beyond Secular's analysis reveals how the NBA continues to transform itself into a wildly successful media producer and distributor more akin to a streaming studio than the sports leagues of old even as its media partners and sponsors erase any notion of sports as a civic good A timely look at a dynamic media landscape The Digital NBA shows how the games we love became content first and sport a distant second

Modern Sports in Asia Younghun Cho, Charles Leary, 2016-04-14 Modern sports were introduced to Asia in the late nineteenth century as an innovation from the West concurrently with the development of modern society in Asia This book traces the historical developments of sporting cultures in Asia in specific local contexts including Singapore China Myanmar Taiwan the Philippines and India and their intersections with larger social developments of colonialism postcolonialism nationalism and the building of modern Asia and its place in a globalized world The case studies herein present the social history of modern team sports with standardized rules such as basketball and cricket and less familiar sports such as fives and chinlone as they vacillate between global and local perspectives This book also shows that modern sports have had an important influence on the makeup of everyday life in Asia and the essays here also consider sports impact on gender body culture and celebrity culture among other concerns This book painstakingly bridges the gaps between Asian Studies and Sports Studies in a way that reflects the historicity and multiplicity of sports in Asian societies By adopting multi disciplinary approaches this book innovatively offers significant intersection between sociology cultural studies and Asian studies of sport in Asia This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society

New Media and Sport Katrien Lefever, 2012-10-04 During the past decade the media landscape and the coverage of sports events have changed fundamentally Sports fans can consume the sports content of their choice on the platform they prefer and at the time they want Furthermore thanks to electronic devices and Internet content can now be created and distributed by every sports fan As a result it is argued that media regulation which traditionally contains rules safeguarding access to information and diversity would become redundant Moreover it is sometimes proposed to leave the regulation of the broadcasting market solely to competition law This book illustrates that media law is still needed even in an era of abundance to guarantee public access to live and full sports coverage Dealing with the impact of new media on both media and competition law this book will greatly appeal to academics and stakeholders from various disciplines such as legal and public policy political science media and communications studies journalism and European studies Additionally it contains valuable information and points of view for policy makers lawyers and international and intergovernmental organisations active in media development The book contains an up to date analysis and overview of the different competition authorities decisions and media provisions dealing with the sale acquisition and exploitation of sports broadcasting rights Katrien Lefever is Senior Legal Researcher at IBBT The Interdisciplinary Centre for Law and ICT ICRI KU Leuven Belgium The book appears in the ASSER International Sports Law Series under the editorship of Prof Dr Robert Siekmann Dr Janwillem Soek and Marco van der Harst LL M

Sports Event Management Ben Tyson, Leslie-Ann Jordan, David Truly, 2016-04-01 Exploring sports event management from a Caribbean small island developing state perspective this volume uses the events of the recently held Cricket World Cup 2007 CWC 2007 as a launching pad for identifying best practices and the way forward The CWC 2007 was the first time in any sport a World Cup was staged in nine independent countries None of the Caribbean territories hosting a match has a population larger than Jamaica's 3.4 million most have less than a quarter of a million people economies are small and infrastructure limited The hosting of this event produced significant lessons that the region and the world can learn from concerning sports event management
